Street, Sewer Improvements Planned

Administration And Council Act

The city administration and Council Friday night laid the groundwork for East Liverpool to undertake in 1967 its most extensive program of street and sewer improvements in many years.

The preliminary details were agreed upon informally during a City Hall conference of the legislators, Mayor George E. Willshaw and Safety - Service Director Robert E. Vodrey.

The major decision calls for resurfacing of St. Clair Ave. from 6th St. to Princeton Ave. at an estimated cost of $55,000. The north end of the resurfacing work would tie in with the new three - lane concrete pavement of outer St. Clair Ave., so that motorists would have smooth driving all the way from the Diamond to the city limits.

THE VARIOUS street projects agreed upon would represent an expenditure of approximately $110,800 in city funds. The cost of five sewer jobs also scheduled for next year would be separate. Most of the expense of the sewer work, however, would be covered by special assessments against owners of abutting property.

Council gave its definite stamp of approval for resurfacing segments of downtown streets which still are officially sections of State Route 39. The work would be done in a $17,000 State Highway Department project in which the city's share would be about $3,500.

The segments include: Jefferson St. from W. 5th St. to W. St. to E. 5th St.; E. and W. 6th St. from Jefferson St. to Broadway, and E. and W. 5th 8th St.; Broadway from E. 6th Sts. from Jefferson St. to Penn-sylvania Ave.

In conjunction with the state project, Council agreed upon resurfacing segments of four more downtown streets, with the city paying the entire cost. They are: Jackson St. from W. 5th St. to W. 6th St., estimated at $1,100; Washington St. from E. 4th to E. 6th, estimated at $1,800; Market St. from 4th St. to 6th St., $3,000, and Washington St. from E. 3rd St. to E. 4th St., $4,500.

Engineer George Bloomgren told Council the Highway Department already has agreed to the city's request for resurfacing the stretches in the downtown area which are part of State Route 39. The state route will be shifted officially some time in the future to follow the new Freeway, but the state agreed it would be equitable to perform the resurfacing before the streets revert strictly to city use, he said.

OTHER MAJOR expenditures agreed upon for next year were

A $20,000 appropriation representing the second half of the city's share for a state project for resurfacing of Route 267 (Lisbon St.) from W. 8th St. to the city limits. Easing of some of the grades on the Lisbon St. Hill segment also would be included in the project. The city's first $20,000 share was appropriated this year.

A $22,000 allocation to update a 1955 arterial highway study of East Liverpool and lay the preliminary steps for extension of the Freeway into East End. The 1955 study must be updated before the city applies to the federal government for a loan for preparation of detailed plans, Bloomgren explained.

Council and the administration also discussed a project expected to be undertaken in 1967 for construction of an auto-pedestrian ramp to tie together the two dead-end sections of W. 9th St. at former Chestnut St. All required city funds already have been provided for the project, which will be paid for primarily out of state funds.

Council informally authorized the engineer to continue work on plans already under way for five sanitary sewer projects, with instructions that the construction work should get under way in 1967, if possible.

The projects are: A Gardendale sewer system; extension of a line from Ambrose Ave. along Maine Blvd. to serve the area in which the new high school will be built; a sewer in the Sunset Dr. area at the west end of Orchard Grove Ave.; a line to serve Alton St., on Sunnyside, and a sewer in the Anderson Blvd. area below Jennings Ave.

The officials also discussed the possibility of a concrete repaving of Avondale St. for its entire length, but no decision was reached.

The mayor said each of the items on which agreement was reached will be contained in his annual message to Council early in 1967, officially requesting funds to make the projects a reality.

Council members attending were Harold Malyone, Donna Richards Wilson, James Lowe, Norman Bucher, Robert W. Sample and Frank Duffy. Councilman Floyd Murray of the First Ward and Ernest Lowe, president, were absent.

Two Of Own Bombs Kill 16 Marines

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—Two 250-pound bombs dropped from a U.S. Marine Corps plane exploded in the midst of a Marine company today, killing 16 Leathernecks and wounding 11, a Marine spokesman said.

The bombs were among six dropped to support a Marine battalion advancing along a razorback ridge, known as the Rockpile, about five miles south of the demilitarized zone, he said. The other four fell on their intended targets ahead of the advancing marines.

The spokesman said the two errant bombs may have ricochetted after striking the rocky terrain or there may have been a malfunction in the bombing mechanism.

The bombing strike was aimed at a suspected concentration of North Vietnamese troops on the ridge.

In other war action, the Viet Cong mounted a series of attacks and ambushes within a 35-mile radius of Saigon Friday night and today and in one assault inflicted heavy casualties on Vietnamese troops.

An estimated 500 - man Viet Cong force attacked two companies of Vietnamese popular force soldiers at an army training center 34 miles southeast of Saigon and took a heavy toll before withdrawing, official spokesmen reported.

U.S. Asks Algeria To Aid Peace Talks

ALGIERS (AP)—The United States asked Algeria today to use its good offices to bring about Viet Nam peace talks.

Algerian Foreign Minister Abdelaziz Bouteflika immediately responded by summoning North Vietnamese Ambassador Nguyen Van Phat to an unusual Saturday afternoon meeting at the Foreign Ministry.

U.S. officials said they were agreeably surprised by the speed of the Algerian action following a 90-minute meeting between W. Averell Harriman, President Johnson's roving ambassador, and Col Houari Boumedienne, president of Algeria's ruling Revolutionary Council.

State Budget May Jump To Two Billion

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio's new two-year operating budget may hit $2 billion for the first time and its sheer bulk may delay its presentation to the Legislature, which convenes Jan. 2.

Deputy Finance Director Howard Collier, who doubles as superintendent of the budget, said today he would seek an extension beyond the statutory Dec. 30 deadline for submitting the budget to Gov. James A. Rhodes for approval and later presentation to the Legislature.

"Size of the budget requires more time and care in putting it together so that outgo will balance against revenue income," Collier explained.

Current operating expense will approximate $1.6 billion for the biennium ending next June 30, he added. The 1964-65 operating budget was about $1.2 billion.

"Whatever happens, the new budget will balance income against expenditures," Collier stressed. He asserted it was too early to determine whether higher taxes would be needed to foot the bill.

Cost of public education may reach $670 million, including a $25 million deficit, for the 1966-67 biennium, figures showed. Two years ago the sum ran just over a half-billion.

Factors in addition to schools prompting the request for more time included:

Administration insistance on "substantial" pay raises for state employes and classroom teachers.

Establishing a state minimum wage at the $1.40 an hour federal level.

First time allocation of funds for maintenance of new facilities such as university branches, park lodges and new capital improvements.

Budgets have been delayed in past Legislatures but this would be the first time for Rhodes, who begins his second four-year term Jan. 9.

State Troopers Hit Night Spots

A contingent of six West Virginia state troopers conducted raids on two Hancock County night spots Friday, arresting three persons and seizing gambling equipment and a quantity of liquor.

Armed with search and seizure warrants issued by Squire Thomas Bellanco of Weirton, the state police simultaneously entered the Hilltop Inn, located at the western end of the "Strip" on Route 30, and the Alpine Club, on State Route 2 north of Weirton, around 10.

Charles L. Pittenger, 49, of Chester, licensee of the Hilltop, pleaded "no contest" to charges of possessing gaming devices and liquor and the sale of liquor. He was fined $200 and costs by Bellanco.

Ruth A. Adkinson of Chester, a waitress, paid a fine of $25 and costs after making a similar plea on a charge of selling beer after hours.

The raiding party seized four slot machines, a "Sweet 16 electric clock," and eight bottles of liquor at the Hilltop.

Joseph P. Hirkala of Weirton, identified as the licensee of the Alpine Club, posted $500 property bond for an appearance before Squire Bellanco Tuesday.

Fourteen bottles of liquor were confiscated at the Route 2 club.

'Bad Case' Of Pneumonia Places Ruby In Hospital

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Jack Ruby, slayer of Lee Harvey Oswald, but a month or so away from a new trial, was taken from the Dallas County jail to Parkland Hospital Friday with what the hospital called a serious case of pneumonia.

Phil Burleson, one of Ruby's lawyers, said it was "too early to tell" how the illness might affect a new trial for his client.

Ruby, 55, was convicted and sentenced to death for Oswald's slaying, but the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals recently reversed the 1964 conviction and ordered a new trial outside of Dallas.

Dist. Judge Louis Holland, who has presided over the case since trial Judge Joe B. Brown bowed out, transferred the trial to Wichita Falls but set no date. He indicated it possibly would be in February.

Burleson saw Ruby soon after he arrived at the hospital and described him as a very sick man.

"We are concerned," said the lawyer. "I think he's very sick."

Burleson said Ruby was being administered oxygen.

"The guy's dying," said Ruby's sister, Eva Grant.

A jail doctor said Ruby had a "throat tickling kind of cough" but at 10 a.m. Friday there was no fever.

Fast Loading Cry Heard In Ship Tragedy

Three Who Survive Sinking Describe Handling Of Cars

ATHENS, Greece (AP) — Three crewmen who survived the sinking of the Greek car ferry and passenger liner Heraklion have testified from their hospital beds that excessive speed and hasty loading of vehicles were factors in the disaster, Piraeus harbor authority sources said today.

The Typaldos Brothers Line of Piraeus declined to comment. The company has made no statement since its ship sank early Thursday.

As a naval inquiry board began an investigation, Greek, American and British warships neared the end of a fruitless hunt for survivors in the Aegean Sea. A Merchant Marine Ministry official said the search would continue through today.

Forty-seven men — 37 passengers and 10 in the crew—were saved after the Heraklion went down in a storm during an overnight crossing from the island of Crete to Piraeus, the port of Athens. Sixty bodies were found and 234 persons are listed as dead or missing. The missing included the captain, Emmanuel Vernikos.

E. Gravaris, the Piraeus harbormaster who is conducting the investigation for the four-member naval board, Friday questioned First Mate Nicos Theodorakis, Second Mate Alexandros Stefandouros and Boatswain Theodoros Mavafis.

The harbor sources said the crewmen testified that cars and trucks were hurried aboard the Heraklion and tied down carelessly. A gale warning was in effect but the crewmen reportedly said the ferry left Crete at high speed.

Crewmen have told rescuers that rolling trucks and cars, torn from their lashings as the 17-year-old ship tossed in the storm, buckled hull plates that had been weakened by towering waves. They said a 16-ton refrigerator trailer pounded open a bow door, letting in the sea.

Selling Job Faced

'68 Move Begun By Gov. Romney

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP) — Michigan Gov. George Romney is making his move for the 1968 Republican presidential nomination — but there is a job of salesmanship ahead among his moderate colleagues as well as GOP conservatives.

There is Californian Ronald Reagan, who said in an interview he is ruling out no potential candidate, is committed to none, and wants to see Romney in national action before he makes any decisions.

Reagan has had harsh words about Romney's refusal to endorse the 1964 GOP ticket headed by Barry Goldwater. The Michigan governor is known to have talked with Reagan in an effort to smooth out their differences. Reagan is likely to command California's 86 convention votes when Republicans gather to choose their next presidential nominee.

Some liberal to moderate GOP governors indicated that they, too, remain to be convinced about Romney.

Romney insists it will be six months before he decides whether to seek the White House. But there was little doubt about his candidacy today among other Republican governors convened in this mountain resort.

Colorado's Gov. John A. Love was elected chairman of the Republican Governors Association. Gov. John H. Chafee of Rhode Island was chosen vice chairman, to succeed to the top spot next year.

In his farewell address as chairman, outgoing Idaho Gov. Robert E. Smylie said the next GOP nominee may well win the White House.

Romney said he is not asking other governors to commit themselves to support him for the nomination.

But with these moves, he stepped into an active unannounced candidacy:

— He said he is not discouraging the formation of volunteer organizations to promote his cause. Even as he talked, a band of three dozen youthful supporters chanted, "We want Romney" and waved presidential placards.

— He said he is not ruling out entry in 1968 presidential primaries.

— The Michigan governor said he may find it necessary to go to Viet Nam, to gain information and shape his stand on steps to settle the war.

"It remains to be seen whether Johnson can get us out of Viet Nam or whether it will take a Republican president to do it," he said.

Talking like a candidate, he added: "I think the people should have the information on how I feel about Viet Nam before they make up their minds.

"One needs to know how the people feel about you — whether they want you or don't want you."

Many Flights Are Canceled By Fog, Smog

New York District Turnpikes Also Hit; Midwest Has Snow

By The Associated Press

A blend of fog and polluted air closed airports and turnpikes in the New York Metropolitan area today.

The mist, associated with freakish warm weather, spread up and down the Atlantic Seaboard from New Jersey north to Maine and reached inland as far as Pittsburgh.

The murk grounded all flights at New York's Kennedy Airport early in the day. It also curtailed traffic at La Guardia Airport.

Hundreds of flights were canceled, delayed or diverted.

The fog disrupted air travel and added hazards to motoring in much of New York State.

Poor visibility grounded several flights at Logan International Airport in Boston.

The fog closed sections of the New Jersey Turnpike for four hours, and halted the Jersey Central Railroad's ferry between Jersey City and Liberty Street in Manhattan.

But much of the country experienced rough weather in the midst of a big day in the Christmas shopping season.

Four inches of snow piled up in Detroit and 3 inches in Fort Wayne, Ind., in 6 hours.

Heavy-snow warnings went out to northern Indiana, the southeastern half of Lower Michigan, and extreme northwestern Ohio.

Gale warnings flew on Lakes Michigan, Huron and Erie.

Snow fell from the Great Lakes region to the Missouri and Ohio valleys, but most of it was light.

Widespread rain slicked streets and roads.

More than an inch of rain doused areas in Georgia, Alabama and northwestern Florida.

And wet weather persisted in the soggy Far West.

Top Soviet Aide Hits China Again

MOSCOW (AP) — A top Soviet leader accused China today of prolonging the war in Viet Nam and causing immeasurably more victims there than necessary.

Charging that Chinese obstruction slowed efforts toward "the goal of the victory of the Vietnamese people," Alexander N. Shelepin, a member of the Politburo and a Communist party secretary, said:

"This great goal would be achieved faster and with immeasurably fewer victims if the position of Chinese leaders, known to everybody, would not have become a hindrance on the way toward this goal."

Shelepin is the last Kremlin leader known to have talked personally with Ho Chi Minh. He was in Hanoi in January arranging Soviet aid to North Viet Nam.

His speech was delivered Friday in Kalinin, an industrial city 100 miles northwest of Moscow, and published today in the Soviet military newspaper Red Star.

The speech contained what was perhaps the strongest personal attack by a Soviet leader on Mao Tse-tung since the ouster of Nikita S. Khrushchev. The fall of Khrushchev in October 1964 ended an earlier round of Soviet-Chinese name-calling.

'Creep' Hurled At Judge As Weird Trial Winds Up

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The judge ordered two hardened convicts gagged and bound in straitjackets before letting their trial continue. A third convict threatened to kill him.

And when the bizarre five-week trial in Allegheny County Criminal Court ended Friday night with conviction of the trio for attempted prison break, one of the defendants called the judge a "creep."

"Incredible," is the way Asst. Dist. Atty. Robert X. Medonis summed up the proceedings. "I'm exhausted. I hope it never happens again."

The three Western State Penitentiary inmates — Richard Mayberry, 28; Dominic Codispodi, 34, and Herbert F. Lagnes, 27—acted as their own attorneys. Sentencing was set for Monday.

As Judge Albert A. Fiok began charging the jury, Mayberry and Codispodi threw the courtroom into an uproar by shouting at the jury and drowning out the judge.

Fiok called a recess and ordered the pair removed. Twenty minutes later deputies marched them into the courtroom bound in heavy canvas straitjackets, their mouths taped shut with adhesive.

Lagnes, still unbound, shook a

Street, Sewer Improvements Planned

Administration And Council Act

The city administration and Council Friday night laid the groundwork for East Liverpool to undertake in 1967 its most extensive program of street and sewer improvements in many years.

The preliminary details were agreed upon informally during a City Hall conference of the legislators, Mayor George E. Willshaw and Safety - Service Director Robert E. Vodrey.

The major decision calls for resurfacing of St. Clair Ave. from 6th St. to Princeton Ave. at an estimated cost of $55,000. The north end of the resurfacing work would tie in with the new three - lane concrete pavement of outer St. Clair Ave., so that motorists would have smooth driving all the way from the Diamond to the city limits.

The segments include: Jefferson St. from W. 5th St. to W. St. to E. 5th St.; E. and W. 6th St. from Jefferson St. to Broadway, and E. and W. 5th 8th St.; Broadway from E. 6th

In conjunction with the state project, Council agreed upon resurfacing segments of four more downtown streets, with the city paying the entire cost. They are: Jackson St. from W. 5th St. to W. 6th St., estimated at $1,100; Washington St. from E. 4th to E. 6th, estimated at $1,800; Market St. from 4th St. to 6th St., $3,000, and Washington St. from E. 3rd St. to E. 4th St., $4,500.

Engineer George Bloomgren told Council the Highway Department already has agreed to the city's request for resurfacing the stretches in the downtown area which are part of State Route 39. The state route will be shifted officially some time in the future to follow the new Freeway, but the state agreed it would be equitable to perform the resurfacing before the streets revert strictly to city use, he said.

OTHER MAJOR expenditures agreed upon for next year were

A $20,000 appropriation representing the second half of the city's share for a state project for resurfacing of Route 267 (Lisbon St.) from W. 8th St. to the city limits. Easing of some of the grades on the Lisbon St. Hill segment also would be included in the project. The city's first $20,000 share was appropriated this year.

A $22,000 allocation to update a 1955 arterial highway study of East Liverpool and lay the preliminary steps for extension of the Freeway into East End. The 1955 study must be updated before the city applies to the federal government for a loan for preparation of detailed plans, Bloomgren explained.

Council and the administration also discussed a project expected to be undertaken in 1967 for construction of an auto-pedestrian ramp to tie together the two dead-end sections of W. 9th St. at former Chestnut St. All required city funds already have been provided for the project, which will be paid for primarily out of state funds.

Romney said he is not asking other governors to commit themselves to support him for the nomination.

But with these moves, he stepped into an active unannounced candidacy:

— He said he is not discouraging the formation of volunteer organizations to promote his cause. Even as he talked, a band of three dozen youthful supporters chanted, "We want Romney" and waved presidential placards.

— He said he is not ruling out entry in 1968 presidential primaries.

— The Michigan governor said he may find it necessary to go to Viet Nam, to gain information and shape his stand on steps to settle the war.

"It remains to be seen whether Johnson can get us out of Viet Nam or whether it will take a Republican president to do it," he said.

Talking like a candidate, he added: "I think the people should have the information on how I feel about Viet Nam before they make up their minds.

"One needs to know how the people feel about you — whether they want you or don't want you."

Many Flights Are Canceled By Fog, Smog

New York District Turnpikes Also Hit; Midwest Has Snow

By The Associated Press

A blend of fog and polluted air closed airports and turnpikes in the New York Metropolitan area today.

The mist, associated with freakish warm weather, spread up and down the Atlantic Seaboard from New Jersey north to Maine and reached inland as far as Pittsburgh.

The murk grounded all flights at New York's Kennedy Airport early in the day. It also curtailed traffic at La Guardia Airport.

Hundreds of flights were canceled, delayed or diverted.

The fog disrupted air travel and added hazards to motoring in much of New York State.

Poor visibility grounded several flights at Logan International Airport in Boston.

The fog closed sections of the New Jersey Turnpike for four hours, and halted the Jersey Central Railroad's ferry between Jersey City and Liberty Street in Manhattan.

But much of the country experienced rough weather in the midst of a big day in the Christmas shopping season.

Four inches of snow piled up in Detroit and 3 inches in Fort Wayne, Ind., in 6 hours.

Heavy-snow warnings went out to northern Indiana, the southeastern half of Lower Michigan, and extreme northwestern Ohio.

Gale warnings flew on Lakes Michigan, Huron and Erie.

Snow fell from the Great Lakes region to the Missouri and Ohio valleys, but most of it was light.

Widespread rain slicked streets and roads.

More than an inch of rain doused areas in Georgia, Alabama and northwestern Florida.

And wet weather persisted in the soggy Far West.

'Spring' To Bow Out, Colder Weather Due

The spring - like weather is about to take its leave, with seasonal cold moving back into the picture.

The forecast calls for rain changing to snow this afternoon or early tonight, with a low of between 28 and 33.

Sunday will be cloudy, windy and colder, with occasional light snow or snow flurries.

Heavy snow warnings have been issued in Northwest Ohio.

Top Soviet Aide Hits China Again

MOSCOW (AP) — A top Soviet leader accused China today of prolonging the war in Viet Nam and causing immeasurably more victims there than necessary.

Charging that Chinese obstruction slowed efforts toward "the goal of the victory of the Vietnamese people," Alexander N. Shelepin, a member of the Politburo and a Communist party secretary, said:

"This great goal would be achieved faster and with immeasurably fewer victims if the position of Chinese leaders, known to everybody, would not have become a hindrance on the way toward this goal."

Shelepin is the last Kremlin leader known to have talked personally with Ho Chi Minh. He was in Hanoi in January arranging Soviet aid to North Viet Nam.

His speech was delivered Friday in Kalinin, an industrial city 100 miles northwest of Moscow, and published today in the Soviet military newspaper Red Star.

The speech contained what was perhaps the strongest personal attack by a Soviet leader on Mao Tse-tung since the ouster of Nikita S. Khrushchev. The fall of Khrushchev in October 1964 ended an earlier round of Soviet-Chinese name-calling.

'Creep' Hurled At Judge As Weird Trial Winds Up

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The judge ordered two hardened convicts gagged and bound in straitjackets before letting their trial continue. A third convict threatened to kill him.

And when the bizarre five-week trial in Allegheny County Criminal Court ended Friday night with conviction of the trio for attempted prison break, one of the defendants called the judge a "creep."

"Incredible," is the way Asst. Dist. Atty. Robert X. Medonis summed up the proceedings. "I'm exhausted. I hope it never happens again."

The three Western State Penitentiary inmates — Richard Mayberry, 28; Dominic Codispodi, 34, and Herbert F. Lagnes, 27—acted as their own attorneys. Sentencing was set for Monday.

As Judge Albert A. Fiok began charging the jury, Mayberry and Codispodi threw the courtroom into an uproar by shouting at the jury and drowning out the judge.

Fiok called a recess and ordered the pair removed. Twenty minutes later deputies marched them into the courtroom bound in heavy canvas straitjackets, their mouths taped shut with adhesive.

Lagnes, still unbound, shook a

The new arrivals brought to 363,700 the number of American servicemen in South Viet Nam. More are expected in the next few days.

On the political front, U.S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk continued his Saigon visit by conferring with top Vietnamese and Americans. Later he told newsmen "we've seen no indication yet" that the Communists would be interested in extending the 48-hour Christmas truce.

"We just haven't heard from them," Rusk said after meeting with Prime Minister Nguyen Cao Ky and Chief of State Nguyen Van Thieu.

The first contingent of the U.S. 199th Light Infantry Brigade debarked at Vung Tau, 40 miles south of Saigon. The rest of the 4,000-man brigade was due within a few days. Also scheduled to arrive soon is another full U.S. infantry division.

Repeating earlier statements about a truce extension, Rusk said, "These things have to be done on a basis of what both sides are willing to do. We can't stop half the war."

Pope Paul VI earlier this week proposed extending the Christmas truce through New Year's as a gesture toward negotiations for peace.

Besides conferring with Van Thieu and Ky, Rusk also got a rundown on the battlefield situation from Gen. William C. Westmoreland, U.S. commander in Viet Nam.

Rusk is scheduled to leave Sunday for Thailand enroute to a NATO meeting in Paris.

Except for the guerrilla fighting around Saigon, there was no major ground action reported.

fist at the judge and screamed: "I swear on my mother's name, I'll shake hands with you in Hell. You're a dead man," and ended with a respectful, "your honor."

Last week Lagnes told Fiok, "If I can't get my rights legally, I'll get them illegally. If I have to blow your head off, that's what I'll do."

While Lagnes made his most recent threat Mayberry and Codispodi continued to mumble loudly through their gags. The situation completely out of control, Fiok called another recess.

Because the accused must be present to hear the charge, the judge ordered them into an anteroom and broadcast the charge by loudspeaker.

Each was charged with holding two prison guards hostage while attempting to escape with zip guns and prison-made bombs from Western State June 27, 1965.

Early in the trial last month, the three staged an escape from the Allegheny County Jail.

With three other convicts they overpowered a guard, held a policeman hostage in his police cruiser, comandeered another car and wounded an off-duty county workhouse guard before being recaptured a few hours later.

In his charge, Fiok called the trio's conduct "utterly horrendous." But he admonished the jurors to "lock out of your minds the distasteful display by the defendants."

It took the jury nearly six hours to reach a verdict. As Fiok thanked the jurors for their time and efforts, Mayberry screamed:

"Why don't you shut your mouth and get on with the business at hand, you creep." Twenty deputies surrounded him, and the judge continued his remarks.

fist at the judge and screamed: "I swear on my mother's name, I'll shake hands with you in Hell. You're a dead man," and ended with a respectful, "your honor."

Last week Lagnes told Fiok, "If I can't get my rights legally, I'll get them illegally. If I have to blow your head off, that's what I'll do."

While Lagnes made his most recent threat Mayberry and Codispodi continued to mumble loudly through their gags. The situation completely out of control, Fiok called another recess.

Because the accused must be present to hear the charge, the judge ordered them into an anteroom and broadcast the charge by loudspeaker.

Each was charged with holding two prison guards hostage while attempting to escape with zip guns and prison-made bombs from Western State June 27, 1965.

Early in the trial last month, the three staged an escape from the Allegheny County Jail.

With three other convicts they overpowered a guard, held a policeman hostage in his police cruiser, comandeered another car and wounded an off-duty county workhouse guard before being recaptured a few hours later.

In his charge, Fiok called the trio's conduct "utterly horrendous." But he admonished the jurors to "lock out of your minds the distasteful display by the defendants."

It took the jury nearly six hours to reach a verdict. As Fiok thanked the jurors for their time and efforts, Mayberry screamed:

"Why don't you shut your mouth and get on with the business at hand, you creep." Twenty deputies surrounded him, and the judge continued his remarks.

Ruby Bailey of 460½ Mulberry St. received lacerations of the left palm from a razor blade.

Brenda Sue Samberson, daughter of Abe Samberson of 1624 Cleveland Ave., was treated for lacerations of the forehead received in a fall over a hill.

Mrs. Harry Thrasher of 107 21st St., Wellsville, received lacerations of the right hand while washing a milk bottle.

David Wright, son of Mrs. Ralph Wright of 812 Nevada St., received contusions of the right hand and forearm when it became caught in a wringer.

The first "farmer's almanac" was written about 1700 B.C.

Santa and the Giant Fighter

By Lucrece Beale

While Billy has breakfast in Santa Land, Tweedleknees discovers the magic words to free the moon from its sealed box.

CHAPTER SIX

Patrick Tweedleknees pointed proudly to the thin green book he had given to Billy.

"It is a secret book of wizardry. I was very lucky to find it. It contains the magic words you will need to set the moon back in the sky."

"B-but," said Billy, "It's my school spelling book! It must have dropped out of my pocket when I put my coat down."

"Nonsense!" snapped Tweedleknees. "It's a code book. You will find the right combination of words at the proper time. You can read, of course?"

—:—

BILLY OPENED the book. He saw his name written there: William Henry Christopher Preeserve. He had written it himself. He was ashamed to admit that these were practically the only words in the book he could read. He wished he had been a better student and studied his reading and spelling at school. What was he to do now?

Santa was pulling on his boots and fastening on his big red coat.

"That much is settled!" he cried happily. "Now off to the Harp Witch to find out how best to slay the giant!"

Billy signed and stuck the spelling book in his pocket. He decided he would face the problem of the magic words when the time came. He followed Santa out of the house.

"If we could go to the witch's island in my sleigh we'd be there in no time," said Santa. "But the giant would surely snatch us out of the sky as he did the moon. Well, I know a turtle who can take us there quickly enough."

Billy's eyes popped when he saw Theodore Turtle waiting for them on the shore of the sea. Theodore was so big four men could ride on his back. But, wondered Billy, how fast could even a big turtle swim?

—:—

THEODORE didn't intend to swim. He climbed out of his shell and turned it upside down in the water. Santa and Billy and Theodore climbed in; the turtle raised a sail, and away they sailed.

Presently they reached the shores of Keepaway and the home of the Harp Witch.

The Harp Witch is an ugly old crone. Day and night she plucks the strings of a rusty harp and croons songs of hate.

Once she had been beautiful and young and madly in love with Goko the giant. Goko wooed her and promised to wed her but on the day of the wedding he changed his mind and never saw her again.

The witch was so mad she flew to Keepaway Island and lived forever after on her hate for Goko the giant. She did not want to talk to Santa and Billy.

She told them to leave. But when Santa told her that they were seeking a way to destroy Goko, the witch laid aside her harp and eagerly listened to their story.

—:—

"THE BOY must have some magic," said Santa, "or the giant will finish him before he even draws his wooden sword."

The Harp Witch thought and thought. Finally she said, "Goko loves jewels."

"What kind of jewels?" asked Santa.

"Beautiful stones set in bracelets and rings and necklaces."

The witch paced back and forth muttering to herself. Suddenly she stopped in front of Billy and cried, "Bring me the Rosanna Ruby. I will place it in a neck band of my own making. When Goko puts the band around his throat it will squeeze so tight he will be helpless."

"Suppose he does not put it on?" said Santa.

"He will! He could not resist the Rosanna Ruby!"

Santa Claus, gifts, music and food will be on the agenda at the annual Midland Rotary Club children's Christmas party Dec. 22 at 6:30 p.m.

Ernie Dostalik, president, said the place for the party will be announced.

Frank Meredith, superintendent of Western Beaver County Schools, was program chairman when the group met Thursday night at the New Riveria Club. He introduced Peter Spadero, the district's director, who presented a brass ensemble comprised of Eddie Betts, Mike Nola, Tom Verzella and Jim Herrin. They played Christmas selections.

C. Lloyd Deffenbaugh provided piano accompaniment for group singing.

Twenty - three members attended. Bill Yee's son, Michael, was a guest.

Dostalik said the Midland club is ahead of the Rochester club by two per cent in a six-month attendance contest.

The group discussed the Beaver County meeting of Rotary Clubs to be held Jan. 31 at the Brodhead Hotel in Beaver Falls. The next regular meeting will be Thursday at 6:15 p.m. in the New Riveria.

124 At Meeting Of War I Group

LEETONIA — The Columbiana County Senior Veterans of World War I had a record 124 at a luncheon meeting Thursday in the Methodist Church dining room.

Wives were guests for the steak dinner and the program presented by Mrs. William Dalrymple of Washingtonville and Mrs. Claude Timblin of Youngstown.

Mrs. Dalrymple gave a humorous reading, "With Love, From Joe," which she composed, and Mrs. Timblin, whose hobby is wood carving, showed wood figures and plates turned on a lathe.

Her husband, a musician and World War I veteran, played piano solos.

Chaplain Emile Gouchemand of Washingtonville gave the invocation. A moment of silence was observed in tribute to the late Orville Blosser of East Lewistown and Thomas Higgins of Salem.

Chairman Harry H. Ferrall of Leetonia R. D. 2 recognized presidents of three senior citizens clubs — Ray Fisher of Columbiana, Mrs. Emerson Hively of Lisbon and Maynard Sheets of North Lima.

Ferrall said a representative of social security will discuss "Medicare" at the veterans' next meeting — a luncheon Jan. 12 at the First Christian Church in Lisbon.

Husband's Strangling Described In 'Triangle'

"He pulled this pillow from underneath my husband's head and he put it over . . . Just put it over his head and leaned his full weight down on him like this. . ."

A small figure in blue, she shut her eyes and shook the table for an instant. A diamond wedding ring on her left hand glistened.

"And I just stood there and looked," she gasped.

Then she slumped back into the witness chair as lurid accusations of adultery, hypnotic trances, drugs and murder unfolded before a jury trying Dr. Coppolino in the death of retired Army Lt. Col. William E. Farber.

Mrs. Farber, a 52-year-old brunette, testified as the state's star witness Friday, claiming that Coppolino entrapped her in a "love plan" through hypnosis.

She said she tried to drug her husband to death while under Coppolino's spell but couldn't go through with it.

In his opening statement, defense attorney F. Lee Bailey told the jury of 10 men and four women that the first-degree murder charge against Coppolino was a "cruel hoax" concocted by a woman scorned. He promised to prove that Farber died of natural causes.

"This woman wants this man so badly that she would sit on his lap in the electric chair while someone pulled the switch," Bailey said.

He accused Mrs. Farber of turning against Coppolino because he married Mary Gibson, 39, a wealthy attractive divorcee, after his first wife died last year in Sarasota, Fla.

Coppolino was indicted on a murder charge in his first wife Carmela's death after Mrs. Farber went to Sarasota authorities. He was indicted in Farber's death at the same time.

Presiding Judge Elvin R. Simmill warned Mrs. Farber at the outset that her testimony might incriminate her in the alleged slaying. She said she was undeterred and had not received any promise of immunity from prosecution as an accomplice.

Mrs. Farber was expected to again take the stand Monday when the trial resumes.

U.N. Marks 'Rights Day'

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Secretary-General U Thant marked Human Rights Day at the United Nations today, declaring peace and respect for human rights go hand in hand."

U. S. Ambassador Arthur J. Goldberg said there were signs of progress from "some traditionally closed societies."

It was the 13th anniversary of the General Assembly's adoption of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights.

Goldberg said: "From some traditionally closed societies come signs, however modest and halting, of progress in such areas as toleration of individual dissent; the right of writers and poets and artists to express themselves; the freedom of the worker to accept or refuse a job, the observance of due process in court proceedings.

"In our own country, the actions of government and the courage of private citizens — sometimes even at the risk and cost of life — have increasingly opened up the equal protection of our own laws, and the promises of our own Bill of Rights, to millions who had been denied them by age-old racial prejudice."

Seven former Little League players saw action with the Los Angeles Dodgers in the 1966 World Series.

GOP Senators Rename Gray And Revive Post Of 'Whip'

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — State Sen. Theodore M. Gray of Piqua has been re - elected majority leader of the Ohio Senate at a Republican caucus which also revived the post of Senate whip.

The Senate has had no whip since prior to World War II.

Gray, re-elected by acclamation at the caucus Friday, appointed two-term Sen. Michael J. Maloney of Cincinnati to the job. Three of the 23 Republicans in the senate were absent from the caucus.

Gray explained at a news conference following the closed meeting that Republicans felt a whip was needed to help the majority leader handle floor actions in the 33-member Senate.

The GOP senators voted unanimously to retain Thomas E. Batemen as Senate clerk — a position he has held since 1927 with the exception of six years when Democrats controlled the upper chamber. The clerk's job is one of the top patronage positions in the legislature.

Other patronage jobs — ining sergeant - at - arms, doorkeepers, secretaries, and others -- will be filed later.

Gray, 38-year - old insurance executive beginning his ninth term in the upper chamber, said that committee chairmen will be selected later, but he called some of the positions "obvious."

In response to a question, he called "a safe bet" the appointment of Sen. Oakley Collins, Ironton, as chairman of the education committee: Sen. Robert Shaw, Columbus, Finance; and Sen. Max H. Dennis of Wilmington, judiciary committee.

LEETONIA — The Columbiana County Senior Veterans of World War I had a record 124 at a luncheon meeting Thursday in the Methodist Church dining room.

Wives were guests for the steak dinner and the program presented by Mrs. William Dalrymple of Washingtonville and Mrs. Claude Timblin of Youngstown.

Mrs. Dalrymple gave a humorous reading, "With Love, From Joe," which she composed, and Mrs. Timblin, whose hobby is wood carving, showed wood figures and plates turned on a lathe.

Her husband, a musician and World War I veteran, played piano solos.

Chaplain Emile Gouchemand of Washingtonville gave the invocation. A moment of silence was observed in tribute to the late Orville Blosser of East Lewistown and Thomas Higgins of Salem.

Chairman Harry H. Ferrall of Leetonia R. D. 2 recognized presidents of three senior citizens clubs — Ray Fisher of Columbiana, Mrs. Emerson Hively of Lisbon and Maynard Sheets of North Lima.

Ferrall said a representative of social security will discuss "Medicare" at the veterans' next meeting — a luncheon Jan. 12 at the First Christian Church in Lisbon.

Husband's Strangling Described In 'Triangle'

"He pulled this pillow from underneath my husband's head and he put it over . . . Just put it over his head and leaned his full weight down on him like this. . ."

A small figure in blue, she shut her eyes and shook the table for an instant. A diamond wedding ring on her left hand glistened.

"And I just stood there and looked," she gasped.

Then she slumped back into the witness chair as lurid accusations of adultery, hypnotic trances, drugs and murder unfolded before a jury trying Dr. Coppolino in the death of retired Army Lt. Col. William E. Farber.

Mrs. Farber, a 52-year-old brunette, testified as the state's star witness Friday, claiming that Coppolino entrapped her in a "love plan" through hypnosis.

She said she tried to drug her husband to death while under Coppolino's spell but couldn't go through with it.

In his opening statement, defense attorney F. Lee Bailey told the jury of 10 men and four women that the first-degree murder charge against Coppolino was a "cruel hoax" concocted by a woman scorned. He promised to prove that Farber died of natural causes.

"This woman wants this man so badly that she would sit on his lap in the electric chair while someone pulled the switch," Bailey said.

He accused Mrs. Farber of turning against Coppolino because he married Mary Gibson, 39, a wealthy attractive divorcee, after his first wife died last year in Sarasota, Fla.

Coppolino was indicted on a murder charge in his first wife Carmela's death after Mrs. Farber went to Sarasota authorities. He was indicted in Farber's death at the same time.

Presiding Judge Elvin R. Simmill warned Mrs. Farber at the outset that her testimony might incriminate her in the alleged slaying. She said she was undeterred and had not received any promise of immunity from prosecution as an accomplice.

Mrs. Farber was expected to again take the stand Monday when the trial resumes.

Fines Assessed After Hearings

EAST PALESTINE — Donald Lee Burson, 28, of Rogers R.D. 1 entered a not guilty plea and waived a preliminary hearing on a charge of assault with intent to rape before Eastern District Court Judge Herbert E. Arfman Thursday night.

Bond of $1,500 was continued and Burson remains in County Jail at Lisbon in lieu of the bond.

Stanley Taucher of East Palestine R.D. 1 was fined $100 and costs, sentenced to three days in jail and placed on one year's probation after pleading guilty to driving while intoxicated. Taucher, 52, also had his driver's permit lifted for six months.

Richard H. Berresford of 39 E. Main St. and Anna M. Burrows of 59 E. Rebecca St., both of East Palestine, and Raymond G. Duke of Lisbon R. D. 5, were fined $5 and costs for failing to stop in an assured clear distance.

Harry R. McDade of Rogers R.D. 1 was handed a suspended $5 fine and ordered to pay costs on a charge of improper passing.

James R. Higgins received a similar fine for using excessive speed for conditions.

Farm Conservation Applications Okayed

LISBON — Four Columbiana County farmers signed with the Columbiana Soil and water Conservation District Thursday for conservation assistance on 356 acres.

The board of supervisors met at the district office here and approved the applications of:

John Hancock of Wellsville, 160 acres in Madison Township; George Wallace of Damascus, 60 acres in Butler Township; Ralph Papania & Sons of New Waterford, 47 acres in Unity Township, and Milan Kireta of Kensington, 89 acres (two farms) in Franklin Township.

The board's next meeting will be Jan. 20.

Truck 'Bumps' Auto In Mishap At Lisbon

LISBON — Police said a truck turning from N. Market St (Route 45) onto W. Lincoln Way (U.S. Route 30) Friday damaged the left rear fender of a car parked on Lincoln Way.

The mishap occurred at 2:45 p.m. and involved a truck driven by Donald T. O'Neil of Detroit and a 1966 sedan owned by Robert S. Hartford of East Palestine. No one was cited.

Council last summer removed the first parking meter west of the Market - Lincoln Way intersection after turning trucks scraped parked cars on several occasions.

Youngstown U. Sets Shift To 'Quarters'

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)— Youngstown University will change to the quarter system beginning next fall.

The announcement was made Friday by President Albert L. Pugsley, who said the move was recommended by the Ohio Board of Regents in order to place all state colleges and universities on a common calendar.

U.N. Marks 'Rights Day'

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Secretary-General U Thant marked Human Rights Day at the United Nations today, declaring peace and respect for human rights go hand in hand."

U. S. Ambassador Arthur J. Goldberg said there were signs of progress from "some traditionally closed societies."

It was the 13th anniversary of the General Assembly's adoption of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights.

Goldberg said: "From some traditionally closed societies come signs, however modest and halting, of progress in such areas as toleration of individual dissent; the right of writers and poets and artists to express themselves; the freedom of the worker to accept or refuse a job, the observance of due process in court proceedings.

"In our own country, the actions of government and the courage of private citizens — sometimes even at the risk and cost of life — have increasingly opened up the equal protection of our own laws, and the promises of our own Bill of Rights, to millions who had been denied them by age-old racial prejudice."

Seven former Little League players saw action with the Los Angeles Dodgers in the 1966 World Series.

Travel Travail In Offing

Airlines, bus companies and railroads are girding themselves for one of the greatest "traffic jams" of the century starting Dec. 16.

This Jet Age dilemma stems from our ability to span distances of hundreds, in fact thousands, of miles by sleek airliners in a matter of hours.

On Dec. 16, hundreds of thousands of college students will be headed homeward for Christmas-New Year's vacations.

On that same date hundreds of thousands of military servicemen will be searching for a way to return to their homes to spend the Yule season with their families.

The exodus to the warm climes for holiday vacations will begin then by "northerners" who want to escape for a few weeks the icy blasts from the Arctic, the slushy streets and other distasteful aspects brought on by the elements.

Then on Dec. 21, elementary and high school pupils will be freed from their studies until after New Year's Day, and many thousands of them and their parents will be on the move.

That's why airline reservations are backed up with as many on waiting lists as could fill twice the airliners that will be available to make the three-hour trips to the Southland and the warm climate of the Carribean.

Only those who work in the transportation industry and those who will be using the various modes of travel during the holiday season will be fully aware of the impact of our mobile ability in this Jet Age.

Of course, those who will be driving to jammed airports, crowded bus and rail stations will get some idea of the bulging demands that will be placed on all forms of passenger carriers.

If you are planning to travel by public transportation over the holidays and have not already made your reservations, you may find you have waited too long.

An Early Present

Christmas has come early for residents of East Liverpool in the form of plans for a comprehensive street and sewer improvement program.

Machinery was put into motion for the much-needed work during a Friday night meeting between the city administration and Council.

While progress was being made in many phases of the municipal operation, the city's badly beat-up streets stood as a black mark for both local residents and visitors to see — and shake their heads in wonderment.

If the 1967 program is carried through to completion — and there's no reason to believe it won't — an outstanding contribution will be made in the interest of civic improvement.

Poor streets give a community a bad name which is hard to shake off despite various advantages that might lie within corporative limits in other directions.

To make the Christmas package even more attractive, the street work will be done with city funds. Special assessments, however, will help bear the expense of most of the sewer work.

There could be no better news for the year-end than that which developed as the result of Friday night's meeting.

Three 'E's' Getting Help

The three "E's"—education, enforcement and engineering—have been the guiding lights for improving safety on the highways in years past.

But now top officials in the U.S. Bureau of Public Roads and the new cabinet-rank Department of Transportation are adding three others.

One is to improve the roads to make them safer, which is similar to engineering.

Second is to improve the vehicle to make it safer for the motorist and to reduce the serverity of injuries when accidents do occur.

Third is to improve the basic control measurers of all highway systems.

For new highways now being planned and built, safety can be designed into them.

Older highways, however, were not designed for the volume of vehicles now jamming them, nor for the speeds of today's drivers.

Thus federal, state, county and city governments are giving high priority to the correction of high-hazard locations on these traffic arteries.

This means straightening out curves, leveling hills, improving sight distances at intersections and going to standard or uniform types of signal lights, warning lights and directional devices nationwide; then a motorist going from one county to another or one state to the next will be guided by the same type of controls.

Rex M. Whitton, director of the U.S. Bureau of Public Roads, has said: "The majority of drivers are performing as well as we can reasonably expect, under existing conditions. From that premise it is logical to reason that the conditions must be changed."

One of Mr. Whitton's predecessors, the late Thomas H. MacDonald, said in 1949, in a voice that was almost alone: "We cannot remake the drivers to fit the highway. We must build the highways to fit the drivers."

That's what is now being done.

Capt. Stanford

One can have only admiration and respect for Capt. Edwin L. Stanford, an East Liverpool airman who will return to the U.S. soon after serving courageously in Vietnam.

Capt Stanford has been in the thick of the aerial warfare. Time and again he has gone into combat against the Communist forces.

If the situations such as that in Vietnam have to be, it's comforting to have men the caliber of Capt. Stanford on the side of freedom.

Punishment And Praise

Because Lt. Col. Charles A. House, a 25-year veteran of the Marine Corps, told news correspondents about an incident in the Viet Nam war for which he won the Navy Cross, he has been reprimanded and is facing mandatory retirement.

Last March when Lt. Col. House's helicopter was shot down, he took command of about 70 American Special Forces and Vietnamese troops under Viet Cong attack at Ashau.

For five days, he led the troops on a retreat into the jungle, eventually finding a clearing where rescue helicopters could drop in.

As the helicopters arrived, the Vietnamese panicked, overloading one helicopter and hanging on the outside of it. Wounded men were left behind.

Lt. Col. House tried to restore order, but was ignored, and finally he ordered his men to shoot. Seven Vietnamese were killed and others wounded before the rescue operation could proceed.

The situation was such that Lt. Col. House, twice passed over for promotions, had no other recourse. This the Marine Corps confirmed and the Vietnamese government agreed, awarding him the Cross of Gallantry.

Later the Marine Corps said the lieutenant colonel used poor judgment in telling newsmen of the incident.

There was nothing classified about the action and, in view of the circumstances, there was no cause for embarrassment.

There was no reason why the story should not have been made public, and we are surprised and chagrined that the Marine Corps would be a party to encouraging any form of censorship where it clearly was not called for.

It makes one wonder how many other stories in the Viet Nam war have been placed under tight secrecy regulations for fear of public criticism.

Still Like Ike

Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower is in Walter Reed Army Hospital where he will have gall-bladder surgery after a series of tests.

We join with Americans everywhere in wishing this great American a successful operation and speedy recovery.

The bulk of his 76 years has been spent in service to his country. He distinguished himself as a military commander and as chief executive of his nation.

The five-star general's attitude was always a big factor in his ability to meet and conquer mountainous responsibility.

In the matter of his approaching operation, he again hs displayed humor and optimism.

Here's hoping the general will be on the sunny California links early in 1967.

We still like Ike.

'The Trophy Room Is Almost Complete'

Reagan Has A Problem

By Art Buchwald

LOS ANGELES

Gov.-Elect Ronald Reagan of California has just been informed that California faces a $700 million deficit after he takes office next year. As soon as he received the news the former actor did what anyone in his profession would have done. He called in some top people from Hollywood who had helped him during his campaign and asked their advice.

Art Buchwald

"Gentlemen," said Reagan. "I've just been advised that Pat Brown has left me with a deficit of $700 million."

"Gee," said a producer, "what a great idea for a musical."

The head of a studio said, "I see it more as a straight comedy, with Ronnie arriving at the state capital as a clean fresh young politician who means well but gets caught up in a series of mishaps and finally with the help of Doris Day saves California from being turned over to Richard Widmark."

"Let's be serious for a moment," Reagan said. "This isn't a movie. It's for real. Where am I going to get $700 million.?"

A SCREEN WRITER said "What about this? You're the governor and a syndicate run by Edward G. Robinson comes to you and says they'll give you $700 million if they can open a gambling casino on Sunset Strip. You throw Robinson out of your office and he vows the mob will get you if it's the last thing they do.

"Then you call up Efrem Zimbalist Jr. and tell him the whole story. Zimbalist gets Chuck Connors to join the mob as an undercover agent.

"But Jack Palance recognizes Connors as an FBI man and just when they're about to knock him off, John Wayne arrives and together with Connors they knock out the whole gang. And Ronnie, as governor, sends everyone to the gas chamber."

"Please fellows", Reagan said, "sounds great but a picture like that won't make $700 million even if Julie Andrews played my wife."

"Ronnie's right," a director said. "He'll never make it in one movie. But what about a television series? Ronnie plays the governor of a large state — we won't say which one — but everyone will know.

"Each episode will concern itself with the problem of a tough guy trying to do the right thing. But he's up against a rotten system left there by a previous administration.

"This is just off the top of my head, but suppose the students at the state university hold a demonstration against the administration. Ronnie calls up the National Guard commanded by Maj. Gen. Glenn Ford. The general's son, Sal Mineo, is a private who was a coward in Vietnam. But Mineo is going to prove himself to his father, who has nothing but contempt for him. So Sal jumps out of his foxhole and attacks the university walls single-handed. He wipes out the entire English department before he is cut down by a Student for Democratic Action. At the end of the program Ronnie presents Ford with the Legion of Merit awarded to Mineo posthumously by a grateful people, and Ford is no longer ashamed of his son."

REAGAN SAID, "I like it, but can we come up with 39 episodes as good as this one?"

"Of course we can. We may not make $700 million the first time around, but if the series is any good we'll get the dough out of the reruns."

"I was hoping there was some easier way of raising the money," Reagan said wistfully.

"Well," said a make-up man, " you could always raise taxes."

"Are you crazy?" said Reagan's press agent. "Do you want to wreck Ronnie's good guy image overnight?"

The Networks' Political Folly

By Raymond Moley

The fame which has come to a few nationally televised news reporters has no doubt played tricks with their judgment, especially their evaluation of their role in the political life of the nation. This is well shown in "Capable of Honor," Allen Drury's satirical portrayal of a campaign for the presidential nomination.

A character in that novel is Frankly Unctuous, the anchor man who presents on his program Walter Wonderful, a columnist kingmaker, to fill in gaps in the news with partisan talk.

But the responsibility for several television reporters who might be Frankly Unctuous goes back to the proprietors who pay the salaries of our companions during the news hour and reap the profits from the lush advertising budgets of the sponsors.

A BARRAGE OF CRITICISM of the programs of the three major networks on the recent election night bestirred William S. Paley, chairman of CBS, to make a sort of reply on behalf of his network.

He made no acknowledgment of the errors and ridiculous projections which CBS gave the viewing public under the flossy guise of news. Instead, he assailed the critics as "Monday-morning quarterbacks." As the New York Times commented on his statement, he proposed an effort "to adapt elections to television, a classic example of exalting the means above the ends."

The criticism of the show put on by the networks during the evening of Nov. 8 and the early morning of Nov. 9 was valid, but it had origins far back, after the travesty in 1960 when the networks, with a gaudy display of computerized projection, announced the certain election of John F. Kennedy hours before the polls were closed in the western half of the nation.

On that memorable evening, one of the major networks proclaimed, with the aid of computers, that the chance of a Kennedy victory was 333 to 1. When, after the election, I directed an inquiry to NBC why and how that figure 333 was chosen, a representative of the company said that 335 was the highest the computer could count.

At that moment before the lights were on in the streets of Los Angeles and San Francisco and only scattered returns were available in the East, any observer knew the election was the toss-up it proved to be. To this day a fair appraisal is that Richard Nixon's majority was thrown into the Chicago river or scattered in the rural counties of Texas.

COMPUTERS CAN only turn out material which has earlier been fed into them. According to the later explanation of at least one of the networks, the calculators had loaded their monster machines with "data" provided by professors and other "experts"—empirical facts about the character of the population in certain regions, such as racial and national origins, level of income, debt and employment and previous election statistics.

This was on the assumption that there is no free will and that voters register their choices according to their economic, social and hereditary station in life. In short, that people are robots.

Instead of learning from the miscalculations and misrepresentations of 1960, the networks—with six years to learn and millions to spend—merely invented another gambit in 1966. This was to call pollsters by the fancier name "analysts" and carry on with voting "analyses."

That gross mistakes were registered was again proved when the final votes were counted. But Paley seems to assume that there had been no earlier critics and that there had been no fault in the show.

Speculation and prophecy require no homework, no first hand examination of fundamental trends and no study of history. But speculation and prophecy are cheap to create, and they bring high prices. The networks still sell such products.

All we can assume is that they will learn nothing in two years, and in November, 1968, they will once more excite but not instruct the viewing public.

The Delegates

By Bruce Biossat

GOP Right-Wing Repeat Unlikely

A good deal of rank misinformation is being circulated these days on the probable delegate make-up of the 1968 Republican national convention.

The argument is being made that the next convention will be heavily dominated by arch-conservative Goldwater types. Indeed, here and there it has been estimated that 70 to 75 per cent of the 1968 delegates will be repeaters from the San Francisco convention which nominated Barry Goldwater.

The chances of that happening are virtually zero.

In the several GOP conventions before 1964 the average of repeating delegates is generously estimated at 40 to 50 per cent. The avalanche of Goldwaterites on the 1964 roster reduced the repeaters that year to around 35 to 40 per cent.

A REPUBLICAN professional with high credentials as a delegate expert says: "I don't see any evidence at all to support the theory that 70 per cent or more of the 1964 delegates will be coming back."

He and another party veteran argued, in fact, that the old 40 to 50 per cent repeater average may be artificially high. As a matter of history, it strikes an average over a period when forces of Thomas E. Dewey and the late Robert A. Taft were in more or less continuous combat — and flushing out the same sets of delegates.

Countless delegates simply have no wish to repeat. Even the staunch ideology of a dedicated Goldwaterite does not necessarily win over all. These people who weather a convention often emerge to find that their strongest conviction is never again to endure the shoving, the boredom, the interludes of near-famine, and the poor view of the proceedings which can be a delegate's lot.

ON TOP OF THIS factor, many delegates are chosen almost automatically by dint of party or political status. High party officers, leaders of party auxiliary outfits like the women's federation, some key officeholders, finance men, significant county chairmen are samples.

The turnover in these posts is tremendous. A check by this reporter exactly a year ago disclosed that for the 50 states, the District of Columbia and the Caribbean islands, there had been 285 Republican chairmen in the period after the 1952 convention. For the more than 50 national committee posts, there were 101 who held the jobs.

The year 1966 has seen no letup. The party roster today shows another batch of new names.

Nor does anyone need to be reminded that the 90th Congress, some of whose members will make it to the 1968 convention, contains several dozen new Republican faces.

Newcomers seem likely to abound in great force at the next convention, and it is risky to assume they will be carbon copies of the Goldwaterites many will replace.

It is, however, reasonable to contend that the 31 additional delegates awarded to the 11 Old South states will give that stronghold of GOP conservatism a relatively louder voice in candidate deliberations than it has ever had before.

Altogether, the South will have 310 delegates out of a projected total of 1,333, with 667 needed to win.

ERRONEOUS REPORTS have suggested that the recasting of delegate numbers also gives the conservatives fresh advantage in the West and Midwest.

It does not. Together, they are slight losers as against 1964.

Moreover, the conservatives' new delegate bulge in the South could prove misleading.

If Alabama's George C. Wallace jumps into the 1968 race as a third party choice, he might easily pick off five to seven or more Old South states. Southern Republicans then would be hard-pressed to persuade a convention to take a candidate of their choosing as a prospective "winner in the South."

Older highways, however, were not designed for the volume of vehicles now jamming them, nor for the speeds of today's drivers.

Thus federal, state, county and city governments are giving high priority to the correction of high-hazard locations on these traffic arteries.

This means straightening out curves, leveling hills, improving sight distances at intersections and going to standard or uniform types of signal lights, warning lights and directional devices nationwide; then a motorist going from one county to another or one state to the next will be guided by the same type of controls.

Rex M. Whitton, director of the U.S. Bureau of Public Roads, has said: "The majority of drivers are performing as well as we can reasonably expect, under existing conditions. From that premise it is logical to reason that the conditions must be changed."

One of Mr. Whitton's predecessors, the late Thomas H. MacDonald, said in 1949, in a voice that was almost alone: "We cannot remake the drivers to fit the highway. We must build the highways to fit the drivers."

That's what is now being done.

Capt. Stanford

One can have only admiration and respect for Capt. Edwin L. Stanford, an East Liverpool airman who will return to the U.S. soon after serving courageously in Vietnam.

Capt Stanford has been in the thick of the aerial warfare. Time and again he has gone into combat against the Communist forces.

If the situations such as that in Vietnam have to be, it's comforting to have men the caliber of Capt. Stanford on the side of freedom.

Punishment And Praise

Because Lt. Col. Charles A. House, a 25-year veteran of the Marine Corps, told news correspondents about an incident in the Viet Nam war for which he won the Navy Cross, he has been reprimanded and is facing mandatory retirement.

Last March when Lt. Col. House's helicopter was shot down, he took command of about 70 American Special Forces and Vietnamese troops under Viet Cong attack at Ashau.

For five days, he led the troops on a retreat into the jungle, eventually finding a clearing where rescue helicopters could drop in.

As the helicopters arrived, the Vietnamese panicked, overloading one helicopter and hanging on the outside of it. Wounded men were left behind.

Lt. Col. House tried to restore order, but was ignored, and finally he ordered his men to shoot. Seven Vietnamese were killed and others wounded before the rescue operation could proceed.

The situation was such that Lt. Col. House, twice passed over for promotions, had no other recourse. This the Marine Corps confirmed and the Vietnamese government agreed, awarding him the Cross of Gallantry.

Later the Marine Corps said the lieutenant colonel used poor judgment in telling newsmen of the incident.

There was nothing classified about the action and, in view of the circumstances, there was no cause for embarrassment.

There was no reason why the story should not have been made public, and we are surprised and chagrined that the Marine Corps would be a party to encouraging any form of censorship where it clearly was not called for.

It makes one wonder how many other stories in the Viet Nam war have been placed under tight secrecy regulations for fear of public criticism.

Still Like Ike

Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower is in Walter Reed Army Hospital where he will have gall-bladder surgery after a series of tests.

We join with Americans everywhere in wishing this great American a successful operation and speedy recovery.

The bulk of his 76 years has been spent in service to his country. He distinguished himself as a military commander and as chief executive of his nation.

The five-star general's attitude was always a big factor in his ability to meet and conquer mountainous responsibility.

In the matter of his approaching operation, he again hs displayed humor and optimism.

Here's hoping the general will be on the sunny California links early in 1967.

We still like Ike.

'The Trophy Room Is Almost Complete'

Reagan Has A Problem

By Art Buchwald

LOS ANGELES

Gov.-Elect Ronald Reagan of California has just been informed that California faces a $700 million deficit after he takes office next year. As soon as he received the news the former actor did what anyone in his profession would have done. He called in some top people from Hollywood who had helped him during his campaign and asked their advice.

Art Buchwald

"Gentlemen," said Reagan. "I've just been advised that Pat Brown has left me with a deficit of $700 million."

"Gee," said a producer, "what a great idea for a musical."

The head of a studio said, "I see it more as a straight comedy, with Ronnie arriving at the state capital as a clean fresh young politician who means well but gets caught up in a series of mishaps and finally with the help of Doris Day saves California from being turned over to Richard Widmark."

"Let's be serious for a moment," Reagan said. "This isn't a movie. It's for real. Where am I going to get $700 million.?"

A SCREEN WRITER said "What about this? You're the governor and a syndicate run by Edward G. Robinson comes to you and says they'll give you $700 million if they can open a gambling casino on Sunset Strip. You throw Robinson out of your office and he vows the mob will get you if it's the last thing they do.

"Then you call up Efrem Zimbalist Jr. and tell him the whole story. Zimbalist gets Chuck Connors to join the mob as an undercover agent.

"But Jack Palance recognizes Connors as an FBI man and just when they're about to knock him off, John Wayne arrives and together with Connors they knock out the whole gang. And Ronnie, as governor, sends everyone to the gas chamber."

"Please fellows", Reagan said, "sounds great but a picture like that won't make $700 million even if Julie Andrews played my wife."

"Ronnie's right," a director said. "He'll never make it in one movie. But what about a television series? Ronnie plays the governor of a large state — we won't say which one — but everyone will know.

"Each episode will concern itself with the problem of a tough guy trying to do the right thing. But he's up against a rotten system left there by a previous administration.

"This is just off the top of my head, but suppose the students at the state university hold a demonstration against the administration. Ronnie calls up the National Guard commanded by Maj. Gen. Glenn Ford. The general's son, Sal Mineo, is a private who was a coward in Vietnam. But Mineo is going to prove himself to his father, who has nothing but contempt for him. So Sal jumps out of his foxhole and attacks the university walls single-handed. He wipes out the entire English department before he is cut down by a Student for Democratic Action. At the end of the program Ronnie presents Ford with the Legion of Merit awarded to Mineo posthumously by a grateful people, and Ford is no longer ashamed of his son."

REAGAN SAID, "I like it, but can we come up with 39 episodes as good as this one?"

"Of course we can. We may not make $700 million the first time around, but if the series is any good we'll get the dough out of the reruns."

"I was hoping there was some easier way of raising the money," Reagan said wistfully.

"Well," said a make-up man, " you could always raise taxes."

"Are you crazy?" said Reagan's press agent. "Do you want to wreck Ronnie's good guy image overnight?"

The Networks' Political Folly

By Raymond Moley

The fame which has come to a few nationally televised news reporters has no doubt played tricks with their judgment, especially their evaluation of their role in the political life of the nation. This is well shown in "Capable of Honor," Allen Drury's satirical portrayal of a campaign for the presidential nomination.

A character in that novel is Frankly Unctuous, the anchor man who presents on his program Walter Wonderful, a columnist kingmaker, to fill in gaps in the news with partisan talk.

But the responsibility for several television reporters who might be Frankly Unctuous goes back to the proprietors who pay the salaries of our companions during the news hour and reap the profits from the lush advertising budgets of the sponsors.

A BARRAGE OF CRITICISM of the programs of the three major networks on the recent election night bestirred William S. Paley, chairman of CBS, to make a sort of reply on behalf of his network.

He made no acknowledgment of the errors and ridiculous projections which CBS gave the viewing public under the flossy guise of news. Instead, he assailed the critics as "Monday-morning quarterbacks." As the New York Times commented on his statement, he proposed an effort "to adapt elections to television, a classic example of exalting the means above the ends."

The criticism of the show put on by the networks during the evening of Nov. 8 and the early morning of Nov. 9 was valid, but it had origins far back, after the travesty in 1960 when the networks, with a gaudy display of computerized projection, announced the certain election of John F. Kennedy hours before the polls were closed in the western half of the nation.

On that memorable evening, one of the major networks proclaimed, with the aid of computers, that the chance of a Kennedy victory was 333 to 1. When, after the election, I directed an inquiry to NBC why and how that figure 333 was chosen, a representative of the company said that 335 was the highest the computer could count.

At that moment before the lights were on in the streets of Los Angeles and San Francisco and only scattered returns were available in the East, any observer knew the election was the toss-up it proved to be. To this day a fair appraisal is that Richard Nixon's majority was thrown into the Chicago river or scattered in the rural counties of Texas.

COMPUTERS CAN only turn out material which has earlier been fed into them. According to the later explanation of at least one of the networks, the calculators had loaded their monster machines with "data" provided by professors and other "experts"—empirical facts about the character of the population in certain regions, such as racial and national origins, level of income, debt and employment and previous election statistics.

This was on the assumption that there is no free will and that voters register their choices according to their economic, social and hereditary station in life. In short, that people are robots.

Instead of learning from the miscalculations and misrepresentations of 1960, the networks—with six years to learn and millions to spend—merely invented another gambit in 1966. This was to call pollsters by the fancier name "analysts" and carry on with voting "analyses."

That gross mistakes were registered was again proved when the final votes were counted. But Paley seems to assume that there had been no earlier critics and that there had been no fault in the show.

Speculation and prophecy require no homework, no first hand examination of fundamental trends and no study of history. But speculation and prophecy are cheap to create, and they bring high prices. The networks still sell such products.

All we can assume is that they will learn nothing in two years, and in November, 1968, they will once more excite but not instruct the viewing public.

The Delegates

By Bruce Biossat

GOP Right-Wing Repeat Unlikely

A good deal of rank misinformation is being circulated these days on the probable delegate make-up of the 1968 Republican national convention.

The argument is being made that the next convention will be heavily dominated by arch-conservative Goldwater types. Indeed, here and there it has been estimated that 70 to 75 per cent of the 1968 delegates will be repeaters from the San Francisco convention which nominated Barry Goldwater.

The chances of that happening are virtually zero.

In the several GOP conventions before 1964 the average of repeating delegates is generously estimated at 40 to 50 per cent. The avalanche of Goldwaterites on the 1964 roster reduced the repeaters that year to around 35 to 40 per cent.

A REPUBLICAN professional with high credentials as a delegate expert says: "I don't see any evidence at all to support the theory that 70 per cent or more of the 1964 delegates will be coming back."

He and another party veteran argued, in fact, that the old 40 to 50 per cent repeater average may be artificially high. As a matter of history, it strikes an average over a period when forces of Thomas E. Dewey and the late Robert A. Taft were in more or less continuous combat — and flushing out the same sets of delegates.

Countless delegates simply have no wish to repeat. Even the staunch ideology of a dedicated Goldwaterite does not necessarily win over all. These people who weather a convention often emerge to find that their strongest conviction is never again to endure the shoving, the boredom, the interludes of near-famine, and the poor view of the proceedings which can be a delegate's lot.

ON TOP OF THIS factor, many delegates are chosen almost automatically by dint of party or political status. High party officers, leaders of party auxiliary outfits like the women's federation, some key officeholders, finance men, significant county chairmen are samples.

The turnover in these posts is tremendous. A check by this reporter exactly a year ago disclosed that for the 50 states, the District of Columbia and the Caribbean islands, there had been 285 Republican chairmen in the period after the 1952 convention. For the more than 50 national committee posts, there were 101 who held the jobs.

The year 1966 has seen no letup. The party roster today shows another batch of new names.

Nor does anyone need to be reminded that the 90th Congress, some of whose members will make it to the 1968 convention, contains several dozen new Republican faces.

Newcomers seem likely to abound in great force at the next convention, and it is risky to assume they will be carbon copies of the Goldwaterites many will replace.

It is, however, reasonable to contend that the 31 additional delegates awarded to the 11 Old South states will give that stronghold of GOP conservatism a relatively louder voice in candidate deliberations than it has ever had before. Altogether, the South will have 310 delegates out of a projected total of 1,333, with 667 needed to win.

ERRONEOUS REPORTS have suggested that the recasting of delegate numbers also gives the conservatives fresh advantage in the West and Midwest.

It does not. Together, they are slight losers as against 1964.

Moreover, the conservatives' new delegate bulge in the South could prove misleading.

If Alabama's George C. Wallace jumps into the 1968 race as a third party choice, he might easily pick off five to seven or more Old South states. Southern Republicans then would be hard-pressed to persuade a convention to take a candidate of their choosing as a prospective "winner in the South."

Assembly Winds Up

New Challenges Facing Churches

By GEORGE W. CORNELL

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — A wide-ranging set of new challenges was before most major Protestant and Orthodox churches today after their representatives concluded a week's work of mapping joint strategy.

Mentioned throughout the meeting was the growing cooperation among Protestant, Eastern Orthodox and Roman Catholic Christians.

Dr. Arthur S. Flemming, newly elected Council president, said the Council's main task will be "proclaiming the gospel of Jesus Christ."

But that, he added, is a double task. It means both preaching and action, he said, allied with Christ in "His ministry of compassion" among men.

In a two-day visit to the assembly, Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey summed up the task as "pragmatic evangelism — faith and deed," and he urged churches to push ahead with social reform.

Guidelines for action drawn by the assembly put priority on working for world peace, equality of opportunity and overcoming of poverty.

The Assembly, held each three years, is the top policy-making body of the Council, which includes 34 Protestant and Orthodox denominations and has 42 million members in this country.

Four denominations were admitted at the current meeting.

Action on Friday's final day included:

— Approval of an appeal for international supervision, through the United Nations, of efforts to settle the Viet Nam war.

— A call for furthering ecumenical activities which "today testify the commitment of American Christians to the move toward a more visible expression of the unity we have in Jesus Christ."

— Endorsement of steps to expand dialogue with other great world religions concerning great issues, such as efforts against poverty and war.

— Encouragement of increased support for family planning programs to "meet the serious challenge to mankind of the burgeoning rise of population."

Captains of the Cleveland Browns are tackle Dick Schafrath on offense and linebacker Galen Fiss on defense.

A MOMENT OF MEDITATION

Adding A Word

In the garden of Eden God gave a commandment to Adam and Eve. He made them aware that if they violated his commandment, they would surely die. The devil changed this statement of God by just adding one word that God had not spoken. God said they would die but the devil said that they would "not" die. From that day to this the devil has not been content to leave the statements of God alone. He has added words that God did not speak. By the addition of just one word, the devil has been able to cause many souls to stand condemned. In this article we would like for all to notice just how dangerous it is to add just one little word to the commandments of God.

Notice how the devil has added the word "only" to statements of God and caused souls to be in danger. Read with me a statement from Ephesians 2:5 "Even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ, by grace, ye are saved." All that the devil has done to this statement is to add the word "only." We have been told that we are saved by grace only. Grace is the unmerited favor God has for mankind. The Bible clearly teaches that we are saved because of the great love that the God of Heaven has for us. Jno. 3:16. We did not deserve this great love that God had for us for we were guilty of sins. Rom. 5:7, 8. "For scarcely for a righteous man will one die, yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die. But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us." Since we did not do anything to merit the love and grace of God, it is clear that we are saved by the grace of God. However, there is not one verse in the Bible that says we are saved by the grace of God only. This word, "only" is a word that has been supplied by the devil in an effort to keep us from obeying the God of heaven.

The truth about how we are saved is seen by reading another statement of the Apostle Paul in the Ephesian letter. Eph. 2:8. For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God." Notice that the verse does not say that we are saved by grace "only" but by grace through faith. Thus there is a part in our salvation that demands faith. Grace is the part of our salvation that is accomplished by God. Faith is the part of salvation that must be supplied by man. We are not saved by either one of these things "only". We are saved by both.

The devil does not want us to obey God. Since faith causes a person to give full obedience to God, it is clear why the devil invented the doctrine of salvation by "grace only". The addition of one word endangers our souls. Hear God!

Assembly Winds Up

New Challenges Facing Churches

By GEORGE W. CORNELL

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — A wide-ranging set of new challenges was before most major Protestant and Orthodox churches today after their representatives concluded a week's work of mapping joint strategy.

Mentioned throughout the meeting was the growing cooperation among Protestant, Eastern Orthodox and Roman Catholic Christians.

Dr. Arthur S. Flemming, newly elected Council president, said the Council's main task will be "proclaiming the gospel of Jesus Christ."

But that, he added, is a double task. It means both preaching and action, he said, allied with Christ in "His ministry of compassion" among men.

In a two-day visit to the assembly, Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey summed up the task as "pragmatic evangelism — faith and deed," and he urged churches to push ahead with social reform.

Guidelines for action drawn by the assembly put priority on working for world peace, equality of opportunity and overcoming of poverty.

The Assembly, held each three years, is the top policy-making body of the Council, which includes 34 Protestant and Orthodox denominations and has 42 million members in this country.

Four denominations were admitted at the current meeting.

Action on Friday's final day included:

— Approval of an appeal for international supervision, through the United Nations, of efforts to settle the Viet Nam war.

— A call for furthering ecumenical activities which "today testify the commitment of American Christians to the move toward a more visible expression of the unity we have in Jesus Christ."

— Endorsement of steps to expand dialogue with other great world religions concerning great issues, such as efforts against poverty and war.

— Encouragement of increased support for family planning programs to "meet the serious challenge to mankind of the burgeoning rise of population."

Captains of the Cleveland Browns are tackle Dick Schafrath on offense and linebacker Galen Fiss on defense.

A MOMENT OF MEDITATION

Adding A Word

In the garden of Eden God gave a commandment to Adam and Eve. He made them aware that if they violated his commandment, they would surely die. The devil changed this statement of God by just adding one word that God had not spoken. God said they would die but the devil said that they would "not" die. From that day to this the devil has not been content to leave the statements of God alone. He has added words that God did not speak. By the addition of just one word, the devil has been able to cause many souls to stand condemned. In this article we would like for all to notice just how dangerous it is to add just one little word to the commandments of God.

Notice how the devil has added the word "only" to statements of God and caused souls to be in danger. Read with me a statement from Ephesians 2:5 "Even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ, by grace, ye are saved." All that the devil has done to this statement is to add the word "only." We have been told that we are saved by grace only. Grace is the unmerited favor God has for mankind. The Bible clearly teaches that we are saved because of the great love that the God of Heaven has for us. Jno. 3:16. We did not deserve this great love that God had for us for we were guilty of sins. Rom. 5:7, 8. "For scarcely for a righteous man will one die, yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die. But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us." Since we did not do anything to merit the love and grace of God, it is clear that we are saved by the grace of God. However, there is not one verse in the Bible that says we are saved by the grace of God only. This word, "only" is a word that has been supplied by the devil in an effort to keep us from obeying the God of heaven.

The truth about how we are saved is seen by reading another statement of the Apostle Paul in the Ephesian letter. Eph. 2:8. For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God." Notice that the verse does not say that we are saved by grace "only" but by grace through faith. Thus there is a part in our salvation that demands faith. Grace is the part of our salvation that is accomplished by God. Faith is the part of salvation that must be supplied by man. We are not saved by either one of these things "only". We are saved by both.

The devil does not want us to obey God. Since faith causes a person to give full obedience to God, it is clear why the devil invented the doctrine of salvation by "grace only". The addition of one word endangers our souls. Hear God!

Scouts Hold Honor Event

Boy Scout Troop 11 of the Emmanuel Presbyterian Church conducted its first Court of Honor Thursday night at the church

The candlelight investiture service was conducted by Allen Bernstorf, patrol leader. Scouts in the Eagle Patrol and the Flaming Arrow Patrol, alternated in lighting the candles, symbolizing the points of the scout law.

David Serafy and William Pyle were inducted as Tenderfoot scouts and presented miniature pins to their mothers. Allen Bernstorf was awarded a Second Class badge, and he also presented his mother with a miniature pin.

Warrants of office were presented to Allen Bernstorf, senior patrol leader; Ronald Tice and John Conley, patrol leaders, David Appeldorn, Quartermaster, and Charles Tice, Scribe.

Scoutmaster Robert Bernstorf and David Appeldorn, Allen Bernstorf, John Conley, Penn Plummer, Charles Tice, Donald Tice and Robert Tice received the Mill Creek Park Ten Mile Hike award.

The troop committee was introduced. It includes James Roslund, chairman, David Tice and Robert Appeldorn, who also served as assistant scoutmaster.

An overnight hike was announced for this week end. The Court of Honor closed with the singing of "Taps." Refreshments were served.

Lisbon Kiwanis Given Report On Life In Liberia

LISBON — Segregation exists in Libera on the southern side of the West African bulge, but it is a separation of class rather than race, Darrell Fadley of Salem told Lisbon Kiwanians Thursday.

The descendants of Negro freed men from the United States make up the aristocracy, while the natives are the underprivileged, he said.

Fadley and his wife went to Liberia in July 1963 under contract with the Methodist Church and served two years as controllers of several mission projects — schools, hospitals and a leper colony. Their son, a Methodist missionary, is now in Liberia.

Liberia was founded in 1822 when American colonization societies arranged for the return to Africa of Negro slaves and located them at a site which became Monrovia, the capital.

Fadley pointed out Liberia is the oldest continuously independent country in Africa and has a constitution modeled on that of the United States.

He showed slides of the country and the people, whom he described as very pleasant and "easy to get along with." Communication is a problem, he explained, with English, the official language, so corrupted with the different dialects it is almost impossible to understand." Fadley said Liberia is about the size of Ohio and has 22 dialects among its 3 million people.

Fadley is assistant superintendent and business manager for Salem schools. He was introduced by J. L. McBride, program chairman.

Scout Troop 415 Due Patrol Demonstration

The Hawk Patrol will demonstrate lashing when Midland Boy Scout Troop 415 meets Monday night at the USW-CIO Hall.

The group discussed forthcoming Canoe Trails for boys 14 or over at a meeting Monday night. James Green, scoutmaster, presided.

At a recent inspection Leroy Turner, a former chairman of the Ft. McIntosh district, served as inspecting officer. A guest was Marine Pvt. Mike Brozic who recently received the Eagle Scout award.

Adhesion is the joining together of atoms of different natures, while cohesion is the joining of atoms of like nature.

The Comforts of Home

To our forefathers, this was living at its best . . . but the hard chair, the iron pot and the open grate would not be our idea of comfort!

Today kitchens sparkle with bright, easy-to-clean metals, and cupboards are filled with helpful appliances. We relax in foam-padded chairs and sleep on spring-filled mattresses. Almost every aspect of modern life is slanted toward speed and convenience.

Man, with his marvelous God-created brain, has overcome many obstacles, and there seems to be no limit to his inventiveness. God has given us a world full of possibilities, and minds that constantly seek to improve our environment.

But to make the most of our opportunities, we must ever develop and renew the resolute "faith of our fathers." Come to church and with others receive that heritage of inspiration and light.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL...
...ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Scouts Hold Honor Event

Boy Scout Troop 11 of the Emmanuel Presbyterian Church conducted its first Court of Honor Thursday night at the church

The candlelight investiture service was conducted by Allen Bernstorf, patrol leader. Scouts in the Eagle Patrol and the Flaming Arrow Patrol, alternated in lighting the candles, symbolizing the points of the scout law.

David Serafy and William Pyle were inducted as Tenderfoot scouts and presented miniature pins to their mothers. Allen Bernstorf was awarded a Second Class badge, and he also presented his mother with a miniature pin.

Warrants of office were presented to Allen Bernstorf, senior patrol leader; Ronald Tice and John Conley, patrol leaders, David Appeldorn, Quartermaster, and Charles Tice, Scribe.

Scoutmaster Robert Bernstorf and David Appeldorn, Allen Bernstorf, John Conley, Penn Plummer, Charles Tice, Donald Tice and Robert Tice received the Mill Creek Park Ten Mile Hike award.

The troop committee was introduced. It includes James Roslund, chairman, David Tice and Robert Appeldorn, who also served as assistant scoutmaster.

An overnight hike was announced for this week end. The Court of Honor closed with the singing of "Taps." Refreshments were served.

Lisbon Kiwanis Given Report On Life In Liberia

LISBON — Segregation exists in Libera on the southern side of the West African bulge, but it is a separation of class rather than race, Darrell Fadley of Salem told Lisbon Kiwanians Thursday.

The descendants of Negro freed men from the United States make up the aristocracy, while the natives are the underprivileged, he said.

Fadley and his wife went to Liberia in July 1963 under contract with the Methodist Church and served two years as controllers of several mission projects — schools, hospitals and a leper colony. Their son, a Methodist missionary, is now in Liberia.

Liberia was founded in 1822 when American colonization societies arranged for the return to Africa of Negro slaves and located them at a site which became Monrovia, the capital.

Fadley pointed out Liberia is the oldest continuously independent country in Africa and has a constitution modeled on that of the United States.

He showed slides of the country and the people, whom he described as very pleasant and "easy to get along with." Communication is a problem, he explained, with English, the official language, so corrupted with the different dialects it is almost impossible to understand." Fadley said Liberia is about the size of Ohio and has 22 dialects among its 3 million people.

Fadley is assistant superintendent and business manager for Salem schools. He was introduced by J. L. McBride, program chairman.

Scout Troop 415 Due Patrol Demonstration

The Hawk Patrol will demonstrate lashing when Midland Boy Scout Troop 415 meets Monday night at the USW-CIO Hall.

The group discussed forthcoming Canoe Trails for boys 14 or over at a meeting Monday night. James Green, scoutmaster, presided.

At a recent inspection Leroy Turner, a former chairman of the Ft. McIntosh district, served as inspecting officer. A guest was Marine Pvt. Mike Brozic who recently received the Eagle Scout award.

Adhesion is the joining together of atoms of different natures, while cohesion is the joining of atoms of like nature.

The Comforts of Home

To our forefathers, this was living at its best . . . but the hard chair, the iron pot and the open grate would not be our idea of comfort!

Today kitchens sparkle with bright, easy-to-clean metals, and cupboards are filled with helpful appliances. We relax in foam-padded chairs and sleep on spring-filled mattresses. Almost every aspect of modern life is slanted toward speed and convenience.

Man, with his marvelous God-created brain, has overcome many obstacles, and there seems to be no limit to his inventiveness. God has given us a world full of possibilities, and minds that constantly seek to improve our environment.

But to make the most of our opportunities, we must ever develop and renew the resolute "faith of our fathers." Come to church and with others receive that heritage of inspiration and light.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ... ... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake, (2) For his children's sake, (3) For the sake of his community and nation, (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Coroner Suggests Reckless Drivers Learn Road Hazards In Hospital Emergency Room

By JEROME A. NACHMAN

EVERY DRIVER FOUND guilty of reckless operation should be forced to sit in a hospital emergency room, see the injured sewn up, hear their moans, and then clean up the blood!"

Harsh? Maybe, but the man who favors such a practice is in a position to decide what might stop needless death.

Dr. William A. Kolozsi, Columbiana County Coroner, made the remark when asked if anything is left to do to remind drivers not to kill themselves.

Columbiana County had 34 traffic fatalities in 1965. So far this year 35 have been killed on streets and highways. Everyone killed in these tragedies has come under the personal scrutiny of Dr. Kolozsi or one of his deputies, Drs. R. C. Costello, of East Liverpool and J. R. Milligan of Salem.

Their job is to determine the cause of all deaths, particularly those of an accidental or suspicious nature.

"We do a lot of head scratching," Dr. Kolozsi explains. He says establishing the cause of death is the coroner's prime responsibility. "How a person dies is not always evident to the physician."

FOR THIS REASON an autopsy is sometimes performed to indicate the primary and secondary causes of death. Depending on the verdict, arrests may follow, juries are occasionally impaneled or a possible controversy is stifled.

Last year there was only one homicide in the county. Seven committed suicide, but 34 perished on the highway. High speed and reckless operation—both human failures—are blamed by Kolozsi for the high rate.

As a driver, Dr. Kolozsi shares most motorists' anger at the foolhardy man behind the wheel. "I see them taking chances, passing badly, driving too close to the car in front . . . I'm tempted to make a civilian arrest."

Then fear supercedes the physician's anger as he notes: "Surely these people will become statistics, but who will they take with them?"

Unsafe vehicles do not constitute the greatest hazard, Dr. Kolozsi maintains. He feels they contribute to the amount of "fender-benders" and also compound injuries.

"Five or six die needlessly because their seat belts weren't fastened," the coroner said, referring to deaths in the county last year. "It certainly seems to be worth the effort to buckle them," he adds.

AS AN ELECTED official, a coroner is in a unique position. He should be entirely non-political, Kolozsi said, stating, and "he has an absolute duty to report the truth without bias."

In Ohio the office must be held by a physician or osteopath unless no qualified medical man chooses to run. A layman, in otherwords, may not run against a doctor who files for candidacy.

The office was originated in England by Richard the Lion-Hearted in 1194 and was called custoc placitorum coronae. The job largely entailed making sure "Caesar" had rendered unto him what was his. The coroner stems from the Latin corona—crown.

The coroner was responsible for the King's receiving a stipend from the estate of those who died in the various counties.

In some states of America non-medical personnel are still permitted to hold the office. This is true in Pennsylvania and some Western states. Only last year a comely New Jersey co-ed won the post in her home county.

"I thoroughly disapprove," says Dr. Kolozsi. "The coroner has great responsibilities to the community," he adds, and points to an early description of the post which states it should be held by "able and discrete men learned in the art of medicine."

Because of the political overtones inherent in the job, Dr. Kolozsi would like to see the creation of a medical examiner post filled by the governor, a non-political appointment of a skilled physician.

COLUMBIANA COUNTY is benefited by the fact Dr. Kolozsi's specialty is pathology. Like Dr. Costello, he is already equipped with the expertise necessary to perform autopsies, analyze tissue to determine what may have caused a wound or injury, and form a scientific conclusion.

Court appearances by Dr. Kolozsi to testify as to the nature of death in homicide cases or summoning a coroner's jury together for an inquest are additional facets to the job.

Analysis and statistical breakdown of traffic deaths have indicated that alcohol is a large factor contributing to accidents. So Dr. Kolozsi advocates the use of blood alcohol tests in all investigations of traffic mishaps with or without the drivers' consent.

He is also concerned with truck accidents and wonders if the drivers involved receive sufficient rest and eat normally.

In addition to the coroner's job, Dr. Kolozsi is director of pathology at Salem City Hospital and Salem Central Clinic.

He operates his office which includes the salaries of Dr. Costello, himself and a secretary on a yearly budget of under $10,000. Dr. Milligan and Dr. Leonard S. Pritchard are unpaid deputy coroners. Mrs. Maryhester McIntyre of East Liverpool, is the coroner's secretary and is considered to have "vast experience" in her specialty.

Death on the highway is a prime concern of coroners and their deputies in Columbiana, Beaver and Hancock Counties. This victim was one of the hundreds who lost their lives on streets and roads in the Tri-State Area in recent years.

CORONER'S RULINGS must fall into one of four categories: accidental, homicidal, suicidal or natural.

The coroner is required to issue death certificates in the event of unnatural deaths and inform police departments of suspected cases of foul play.

Often a bullet recovered from a body will be sent to the Bureau of Criminal Identification in London, Ohio, for assistance in determining what type of shell it was and how the gun may have been fired.

Dr. Kolozsi feels drivers don't readjust their patterns to changes in traffic conditions. "Columbiana County driving differs from Manhattan," he explains. "Drivers must adjust to the environment."

Dr. Costello feels the hilly terrain in southern Columbiana County contributes to the death toll. But Dr. Kolozsi maintains that steep grades make cautious drivers and says two-thirds of the county's "fatals" occur in the north.

As a member of the Ohio State Coroners Association and the national association, Dr. Kolozsi keeps abreast of medico-legal thought as it progresses. He points to a copy of Legal Medicine in a book shelf behind him and refers to it as "my Bible."

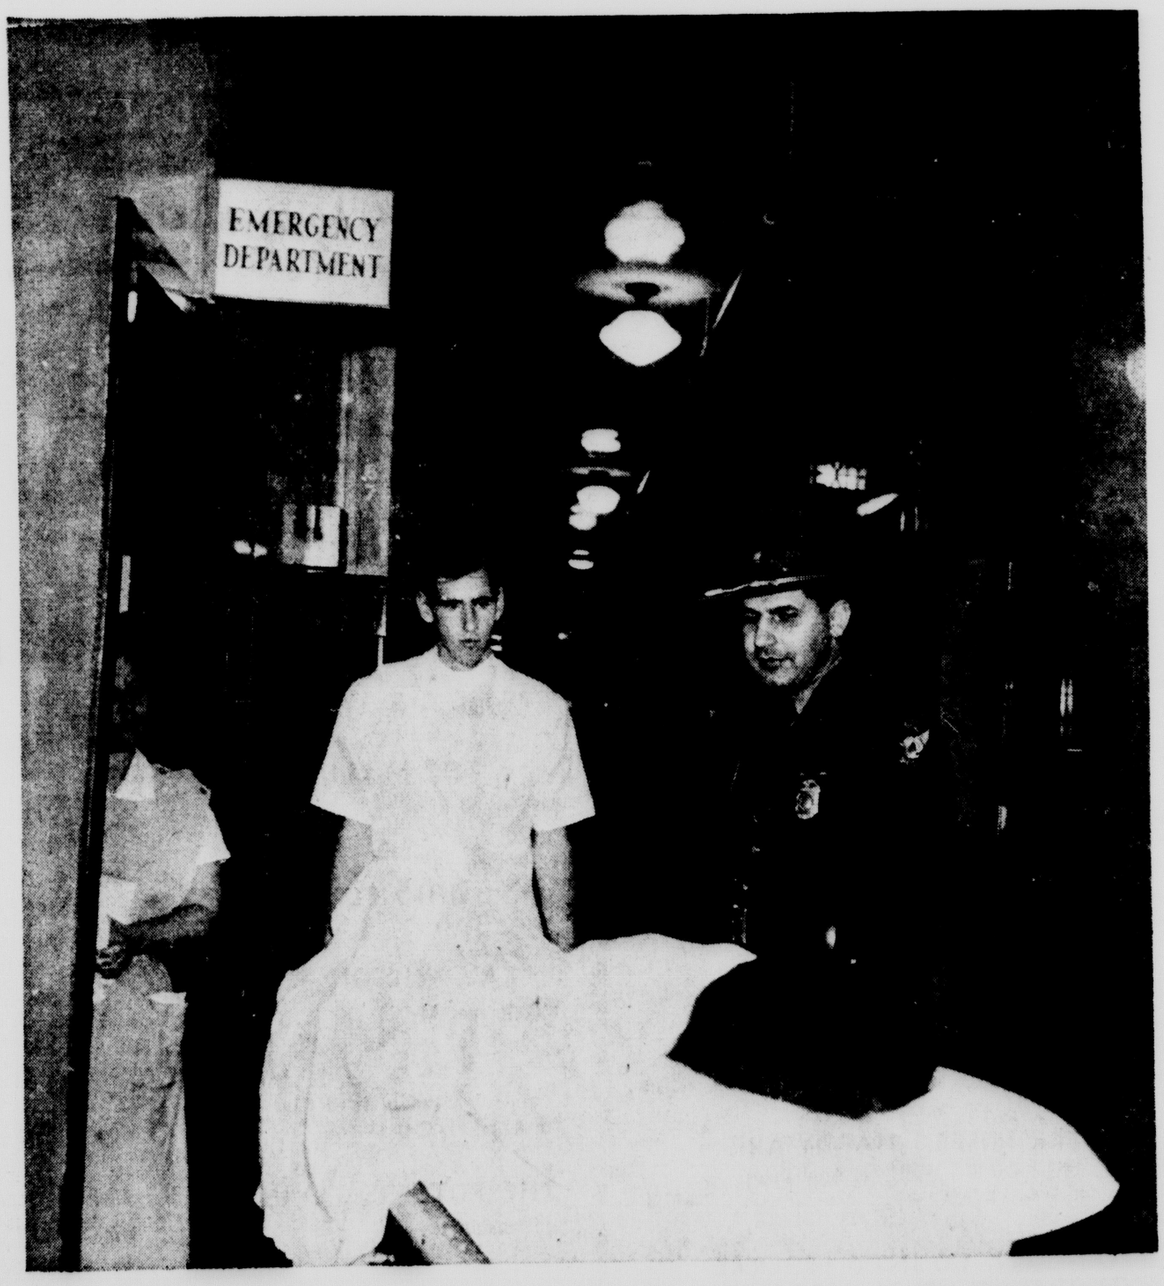
But perhaps more than most people Dr. Kolozsi is aware that studies of forensic medicine, safety devices and gory pictures just aren't enough.

Driver's must be given lessons with lasting influence he says, referring back to the emergency room quote.

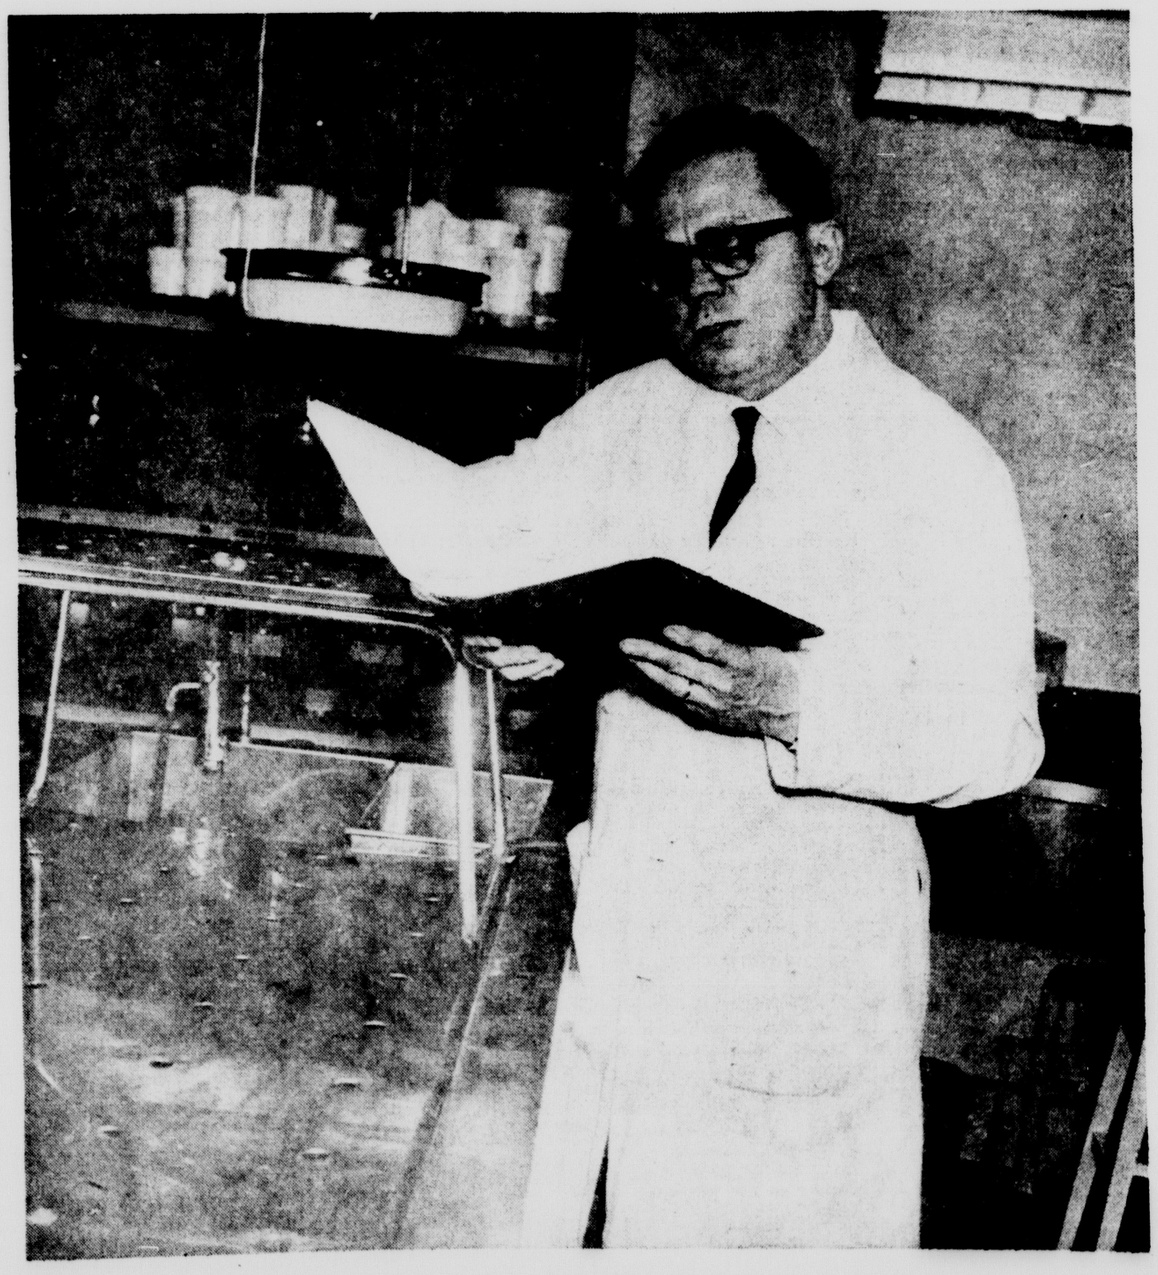
AS AN EXAMPLE he tells of the time he and three public health service physicians were motoring across the turnpike at a dangerously high speed before the era of posted limits. "We were all doctors," recalled Dr. Kolozsi, "and here we were racing down the highway so fast that I remember saying to myself 'if he hits something we'll all be killed instantly."

Just at this point the car came upon a horrible accident. Several people had been killed—their heads lopped off in one of those grisly marriages of speeding steel and glass almost every motorist has seen.

"Only then," he said, "did the driver continue on at a reasonable rate of speed . . . after we saw there was nothing we could do for the victims."



"Dead On Arrival" is too often the tragic phase describing highway victims brought to the emergency room at City Hospital. Sgt. Ralph Rizzo of the Ohio Highway Patrol is shown with nurse's aide Dorothy Tucker and orderly Sam Orr.



Dr. William Kolozsi of Salem, Columbiana County Coroner, checks his records in the morgue of Salem City Hospital where many of the autopsies in investigations of auto fatalities, murders, suicides or other deaths are conducted.

Outdoor Notes

Review Staff Member

Harold shot all three to win the Triple Trophy.

"THERE'S MY Triple Trophy." A Midland hunter —Harold Van Fossan—says this was the thought that flashed through his mind as he looked down the sight of his rifle at the deer that was to win him the coveted award presented by the Pennsylvania Game Commission to hunters successful enough to bag three different elusive game animals in one season.

The Triple Trophy is awarded that few who shoot a turkey, a bear and a deer in one hunting season.

Harold says he was very much aware of what the shot could mean to him, but says he ..was not nervous. "I've hunted deer several years. I used to get buck fever, but I'm over that now."

He says he was immediately flooded with elation when the slug from his .30-06 hit home and the six point buck fell to the ground. It was raining and snowing, in general a miserable day, but Harold didn't notice.

Strangely, Harold never heard of the coveted award until this year. He was turkey hunting in Potter County and after shooting a hen bird, a friend told him he might have a chance at winning.

"This was on Nov. 1 and that is when I started thinking about it. I even commented I would win the trophy."

On Nov. 25 Harold shot a bear and then came the deer three days later on Nov. 28, the opening day of deer season.

HAROLD SHOT his turkey in Pottery County. It was about 2:55 in the afternoon when the flock of about 20 walked by. They were single file, feeding as they went, and Harold says he had his pick. He shot a 15-pound hen with the rifle on his over-under gun.

Allen Froats of Midland then told Harold of the possibility of winning the award.

Bob Haggerty, another member of the large hunting party, shot a turkey the following day and Froats' father, Allen Froats, shot one the next. The younger Froats later shot an 18-pound gobbler.

Harold took the next step toward the triple crown when he shot a bear the Friday following Thanksgiving. "It was a warm morning and it was raining when I first saw it on the mountainside, about 8:30 a.m.," he says.

In fact it was so warm that he telephoned back to his wife to make a trip to pick up the carcass for fear it would spoil.

The bear was shot in Elk County near Portland Mills, the same area where he shot the deer. The bear weighed 150 pounds. The buck weighed 130. The bear was the 26th taker in a five mile area.

Leo E. Milford, a game warden, checked the bear and deer and signed Harold's application for the trophy. He told Harold he was the third in the state to win the honors.

Harold, who returned home last Saturday, says it was the first time he had shot either a turkey or bear. He was hunting with a group of area men and they were staying in a new camping trailer Harold recently purchased.

He has the turkey put away in the freezer. It will adorn the family table Christmas day. He saved the horns from the deer after it was dressed out, not wanting to have the head mounted. The bear skin will be made into a rug, complete with the head.

Harold says he has shot larger deer, commenting the day after he shot his he was on a drive for the other hunters when he saw a much larger buck.

Harold is employed as a heater in the coke plant at the Midland Works of the Crucible Steel Co. at Midland.

PENNSYLVANIA'S BUCK season ends at 5 p.m. today. The regular statewide antlerless deer season will be held next Monday and Tuesday.

While successful deer hunters were quite cooperative in bringing their prize bucks to the checking stations in Clarion, Dauphin and Wyoming Counties, about one-third fewer deer were examined this year than in 1965, indicating that not as many deer were harvested during the first week of the season compared to the same period last year.

However, the lower harvest is no indication of the size of the deer population or the number of available bucks. Field reports indicate that hunters are seeing plenty of deer and Commission authorities are confident there are still plenty of trophy racks available throughout the state.

The lower buck harvest this year is mainly due to weather conditions, according to the Game Commission. The heavy rain on the first day of the season, which turned to snow in most sections of the state, coupled with the arrival of a cold wave later in the week, cut into what was expected to be a larger harvest of bucks.

During the two-day antlerless season next Monday and Tuesday, only hunters who possess antlerless deer licenses and who have not taken a whitetail in the state during the current license year will be permitted to hunt for the state animal. Antlerless licenses are valid only in the county in which they were issued, and are not transferable to other hunters.

While field reports indicate that there will be plenty of targets available during the antlerless deer season, the total statewide deer harvest will not approach last year's reported 99,788 unless there is a big increase in the harvest of antlerless deer this year.

In 1965, hunters reported taking 65,150 antlered deer, an all-time record. This year, it would appear now, not nearly that many will be harvested.

Last year, Keystone State hunters reported harvesting 34,638 antlerles deer. This figure, if the weatherman cooperates, should be exceeded in 1966.

In the event that bad weather during the two-day antlerless season prevents a desired and adequate harvest of whitetails in any area of the state, the Game Commission will announce next Wednesday, through all news media, those counties in which antlerless deer may be lawfully taken with the required antlerless deer license on Dec. 16 and/or 17.

This is the first year in which the Game Commission has made provision against inclement weather in its program to manage the state's large deer herd.

Shooting hours for the antlerless season are 7 A. M. to 5 P. M.

City Architect Helps In Design Of New Pittsburgh School Plan

The firm of an East Liverpool architect has begun design work on new type of community-school complex for Pittsburgh.

Urban Design Associates, a partnership of James N. Porter of Cain Heights and David Lewis of Pittsburgh, has been awarded a contract by the Pittsburgh Board of Education and the City Planning Department of Pittsburgh for the project.

First announced in a national news magazine in July, the Pittsburgh concept differs from the usual campus plan type of education park in that the goal is to completely restructure a community around the school system.

A super high school, technical school and middle schools will form the core of the complex which will also include housing, commercial and institutional buildings, recreational facilities, parking structures and a terminal for a new rapid transit system planned for Pittsburgh.

Elementary schools and kindergartens will be scaled for use by small children and distributed on a neighborhood basis with access by green pedestrian ways to minimize dangerous street crossings.

Besides the benefits of grouping schools — such as intensive use of expensive facilities and easier administration and maintenance — the Pittsburgh plan will draw students from larger areas achieving a more balanced racial mix, answering a long complaint of the city's minority groups.

The Pittsburgh plans calls for five sub-cores, each served by a major transportation artery such as a railroad or highway.

Aimed at the year 2000, the concept, based on "The Great High Schools" plan, provides a web of educational institutions flowing from the neighborhood nursery school to the high school and post high school facilities at the core.

The subcommunity served by the education plan would consist of 100,000 or more people.

The total program is summarized in the 1965-66 annual report of the Pittsburgh Board of Education released this weekend.

The first two projects have been selected, but the locations not announced.

Among other projects completed or being performed by Urban Design Associates are a steep slope housing development on Mt. Washington, Pittsburgh; rehabilitation of the central business district at Beaver Falls, planning and design of a new city of 150,000 in North Ireland, and the world's first multi-level center for 100,000 in Cumbernault, Scotland.

Porter and Lewis are professors of architecture and design at Carnegie Institute of Technology.

We have a saying within the Church that we mention many times, especially in our praying; and the saying is "God is on the giving hand".

By this we mean that God is bountiful in His gifts to men and that He is not one to withhold His blessing.

So often we in the Church talk to people in terms of what they can and may give to God and to the Church; of what they ought to be doing for God with their talents and their treasures.

Perhaps we ought to remind people, at least once in a while, that God is One who wants to give as well as get, that God is One who wants to do for others acts of love, kindness, and goodness; as well as receive of their devotion and service.

We ought also to remember that God is One who gives because He just simply wants to give; He does not have to be begged into giving, coerced into giving, or bargained into giving. God, our most wonderful God, is on the "giving hand."

JESUS SAID to the people of His day, "Fear not, little flock; for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom"

God takes pleasure in giving; God receives pleasure from His giving. Perhaps it is hard for selfish man to understand and believe this.

REV. ARTHUR WILLIAMS

At any rate we have many people who doubt the benevolence and the givingness of God. These folk actually believe that it has been through their own ingenuity and providence that they live the life of good fortune and abundance which they do. So many times we hear them ask, "What has God ever done for me?"

Christmas is a season when we, (that is most of us), are on the giving hand. We want to bring joy, happiness and well being to others, to those we love, by giving them carefully selected gifts. And while there may be exceptions, we are more concerned with giving than we are with getting.

Christmas is also a time when we are made fully aware of the givingness of God. There are some who would argue that we celebrate the birth of Jesus at the wrong time of the year; but we are all in complete agreement as to what we are celebrating; the givingness of God, the gift of God's Son, our Lord and our Christ to us.

The Apostle Paul speaks of this in his letter to the Romans, Chapter Eight, Verse 32, "He that spared not His own Son, but delivered Him up for us all, how shall He not with him also freely give us all things."

A LONG TIME before this Abraham had been willing to offer up his only son, Isaac, to prove and to show his devotion to God. Now Paul reminds us that God reveals and demonstrated His love and devotion to us through the giving of His Son; to become like we are in the Incarnation, and to become our Saviour in His death and resurrection.

Paul's thought goes on to this; if God has done that for us, (and He Has), then would He not also give us freely all other blessings, with His Son.

Yes, God is on the giving hand and I am constantly aware of all that he has given and is giving me. With Christ I have life, and health and strength; with Him I have peace and joy and happiness; with Him all of God's goodness is mine.

May God give you also His blessings, with His Son.

Harold shot all three to win the Triple Trophy.

"THERE'S MY Triple Trophy." A Midland hunter —Harold Van Fossan—says this was the thought that flashed through his mind as he looked down the sight of his rifle at the deer that was to win him the coveted award presented by the Pennsylvania Game Commission to hunters successful enough to bag three different elusive game animals in one season.

The Triple Trophy is awarded that few who shoot a turkey, a bear and a deer in one hunting season.

Harold says he was very much aware of what the shot could mean to him, but says he ..was not nervous. "I've hunted deer several years. I used to get buck fever, but I'm over that now."

He says he was immediately flooded with elation when the slug from his .30-06 hit home and the six point buck fell to the ground. It was raining and snowing, in general a miserable day, but Harold didn't notice.

Strangely, Harold never heard of the coveted award until this year. He was turkey hunting in Potter County and after shooting a hen bird, a friend told him he might have a chance at winning.

"This was on Nov. 1 and that is when I started thinking about it. I even commented I would win the trophy."

On Nov. 25 Harold shot a bear and then came the deer three days later on Nov. 28, the opening day of deer season.

HAROLD SHOT his turkey in Pottery County. It was about 2:55 in the afternoon when the flock of about 20 walked by. They were single file, feeding as they went, and Harold says he had his pick. He shot a 15-pound hen with the rifle on his over-under gun.

Allen Froats of Midland then told Harold of the possibility of winning the award.

Bob Haggerty, another member of the large hunting party, shot a turkey the following day and Froats' father, Allen Froats, shot one the next. The younger Froats later shot an 18-pound gobbler.

Harold took the next step toward the triple crown when he shot a bear the Friday following Thanksgiving. "It was a warm morning and it was raining when I first saw it on the mountainside, about 8:30 a.m.," he says.

In fact it was so warm that he telephoned back to his wife to make a trip to pick up the carcass for fear it would spoil.

The bear was shot in Elk County near Portland Mills, the same area where he shot the deer. The bear weighed 150 pounds. The buck weighed 130. The bear was the 26th taker in a five mile area.

Leo E. Milford, a game warden, checked the bear and deer and signed Harold's application for the trophy. He told Harold he was the third in the state to win the honors.

Harold, who returned home last Saturday, says it was the first time he had shot either a turkey or bear. He was hunting with a group of area men and they were staying in a new camping trailer Harold recently purchased.

He has the turkey put away in the freezer. It will adorn the family table Christmas day. He saved the horns from the deer after it was dressed out, not wanting to have the head mounted. The bear skin will be made into a rug, complete with the head.

Harold says he has shot larger deer, commenting the day after he shot his he was on a drive for the other hunters when he saw a much larger buck.

Harold is employed as a heater in the coke plant at the Midland Works of the Crucible Steel Co. at Midland.

PENNSYLVANIA'S BUCK season ends at 5 p.m. today. The regular statewide antlerless deer season will be held next Monday and Tuesday.

While successful deer hunters were quite cooperative in bringing their prize bucks to the checking stations in Clarion, Dauphin and Wyoming Counties, about one-third fewer deer were examined this year than in 1965, indicating that not as many deer were harvested during the first week of the season compared to the same period last year.

However, the lower harvest is no indication of the size of the deer population or the number of available bucks. Field reports indicate that hunters are seeing plenty of deer and Commission authorities are confident there are still plenty of trophy racks available throughout the state.

The lower buck harvest this year is mainly due to weather conditions, according to the Game Commission. The heavy rain on the first day of the season, which turned to snow in most sections of the state, coupled with the arrival of a cold wave later in the week, cut into what was expected to be a larger harvest of bucks.

During the two-day antlerless season next Monday and Tuesday, only hunters who possess antlerless deer licenses and who have not taken a whitetail in the state during the current license year will be permitted to hunt for the state animal. Antlerless licenses are valid only in the county in which they were issued, and are not transferable to other hunters.

While field reports indicate that there will be plenty of targets available during the antlerless deer season, the total statewide deer harvest will not approach last year's reported 99,788 unless there is a big increase in the harvest of antlerless deer this year.

In 1965, hunters reported taking 65,150 antlered deer, an all-time record. This year, it would appear now, not nearly that many will be harvested.

Last year, Keystone State hunters reported harvesting 34,638 antlerles deer. This figure, if the weatherman cooperates, should be exceeded in 1966.

In the event that bad weather during the two-day antlerless season prevents a desired and adequate harvest of whitetails in any area of the state, the Game Commission will announce next Wednesday, through all news media, those counties in which antlerless deer may be lawfully taken with the required antlerless deer license on Dec. 16 and or 17.

This is the first year in which the Game Commission has made provision against inclement weather in its program to manage the state's large deer herd.

Shooting hours for the antlerless season are 7 A. M. to 5 P. M.

City Architect Helps In Design Of New Pittsburgh School Plan

The firm of an East Liverpool architect has begun design work on new type of community-school complex for Pittsburgh.

Urban Design Associates, a partnership of James N. Porter of Cain Heights and David Lewis of Pittsburgh, has been awarded a contract by the Pittsburgh Board of Education and the City Planning Department of Pittsburgh for the project.

First announced in a national news magazine in July, the Pittsburgh concept differs from the usual campus plan type of education park in that the goal is to completely restructure a community around the school system.

A super high school, technical school and middle schools will form the core of the complex which will also include housing, commercial and institutional buildings, recreational facilities, parking structures and a terminal for a new rapid transit system planned for Pittsburgh.

Elementary schools and kindergartens will be scaled for use by small children and distributed on a neighborhood basis with access by green pedestrian ways to minimize dangerous street crossings.

Besides the benefits of grouping schools — such as intensive use of expensive facilities and easier administration and maintenance — the Pittsburgh plan will draw students from larger areas achieving a more balanced racial mix, answering a long complaint of the city's minority groups.

The Pittsburgh plans calls for five sub-cores, each served by a major transportation artery such as a railroad or highway.

Aimed at the year 2000, the concept, based on "The Great High Schools" plan, provides a web of educational institutions flowing from the neighborhood nursery school to the high school and post high school facilities at the core.

The subcommunity served by the education plan would consist of 100,000 or more people.

The total program is summarized in the 1965-66 annual report of the Pittsburgh Board of Education released this weekend.

The first two projects have been selected, but the locations not announced.

Among other projects completed or being performed by Urban Design Associates are a steep slope housing development on Mt. Washington, Pittsburgh; rehabilitation of the central business district at Beaver Falls, planning and design of a new city of 150,000 in North Ireland, and the world's first multi-level center for 100,000 in Cumbernault, Scotland.

Porter and Lewis are professors of architecture and design at Carnegie Institute of Technology.

Patrolmen Seek Driver Who Left Scene–And Car

The Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon is seeking the driver of a 1965 auto who drove away from the scene of a collision on Kountz Ave., near Wellsville, Friday night, halted 500 yards away, got out, locked the car, and walked away.

Robert Oswalt, 46, of 319 11th St., Wellsville, told officers his 1960 sedan was struck by another car on the sharp curve of Kountz Ave. just west of Route 7 about 10:30.

Oswalt said he was headed south and the other auto — a 1965 Ford coach — was headed north on the curve — when his car was struck by the other.

The driver of the other auto continued north for a third of a mile, stopped the car, turned off the lights, got out, locked it and left on foot, the patrol said.

The owner of the car is a Wellsville area resident and officers are checking out the details of the incident. Both vehicles received minor damage.

A Minerva woman was cited yesterday afternoon on Route 30 after her car struck one operated by a Salineville man, officers reported.

Paul D. Murray, 48, of 82 W. Main St., Salineville, was headed west on Route 30, about a mile east of Stark County, when Hazel Crouse, 19, of Minerva R.D. 2 drove from a private drive into the path of his car and struck his car in the side.

She was charged with failure to yield the right of way.

Larry Zacharias of 1121 Mick Rd., Wellsville, was fined $10 and costs Friday in Columbiana County Southwest Court at Lisbon when he pleaded guilty to a charge of parking on the paved portion of a road.

He and four other Wellsville men were cited Dec. 1 by Fire Chief Robert W. Lewis of Wellsville, who said their parked cars prevented free passage of fire equipment early Nov. 29 on the way to a fire on the Pleasant Valley Rd.

Judge J. L. MacDonald gave Lewis permission to withdraw the charge against F. E. Jackson of Box 73. The chief said he subsequently learned that Jackson was parked in front of his home.

William Cataldo of 1702 Nevada St. and Wilbert Ewing Jr. of 1111 Mick Rd. pleaded not guilty and posted $10 bonds for appearance when their cases are assigned for trial.

The fifth defendant, Willy Thomkins of 1730 Chester Ave., was granted a continuance until Dec. 27.

Judge MacDonald fined five drivers yesterday. Pleading guilty were Arthur R. Ritchie of Kensington, failure to yield the right of way, $15 and costs; George L. Brown of Lisbon R.D. 1, and Goyen B. Mullins of Kent, speeding, $10 and costs each, and Homer Clark of Lisbon R. D. 2, and James E. McCune of Wellsville, speeding, $5 and costs each.

Judgment Reversed In $25,000 Action

The Seventh District Court of Appeals has reversed a Common Pleas Court judgment that went against an East Liverpool woman 18 months ago in a personal injury suit.

Remanded for a new trial was Mrs. Erma J. Holdshue's $25,000 action against Ramon Whinery of Lisbon R. D. 4, who operates Whinery's Landing at Guilford Lake.

The jury trial began May 5, 1965, and ended soon after the plaintiff's opening statement when Judge Joel H. Sharp sustained the defendant's motion for a directed verdict.

Mrs. Holdshoe's petition claimed Whinery was negligent in not providing a parking area at his picnic grounds. She said she was picnicking there July 15, 1962, and a parked car, accidentally knocked out of gear by a child, ran down the hillside and struck her.

West Virginia Eyes Use Of Voter Cards

CHARLESTON (AP) — Members of the West Virginia Election Commission will meet here Dec. 19 to discuss various proposed changes in voting procedures, including the adoption of a voter identification card.

Patrolmen Seek Driver Who Left Scene—And Car

The Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon is seeking the driver of a 1965 auto who drove away from the scene of a collision on Kountz Ave., near Wellsville, Friday night, halted 500 yards away, got out, locked the car, and walked away.

Robert Oswalt, 46, of 319 11th St., Wellsville, told officers his 1960 sedan was struck by another car on the sharp curve of Kountz Ave. just west of Route 7 about 10:30.

Oswalt said he was headed south and the other auto — a 1965 Ford coach — was headed north on the curve — when his car was struck by the other.

The driver of the other auto continued north for a third of a mile, stopped the car, turned off the lights, got out, locked it and left on foot, the patrol said.

The owner of the car is a Wellsville area resident and officers are checking out the details of the incident. Both vehicles received minor damage.

A Minerva woman was cited yesterday afternoon on Route 30 after her car struck one operated by a Salineville man, officers reported.

Paul D. Murray, 48, of 82 W. Main St., Salineville, was headed west on Route 30, about a mile east of Stark County, when Hazel Crouse, 19, of Minerva R.D. 2 drove from a private drive into the path of his car and struck his car in the side.

She was charged with failure to yield the right of way.

Driver Fined At Hearing On Fire 'Block'

Larry Zacharias of 1121 Mick Rd., Wellsville, was fined $10 and costs Friday in Columbiana County Southwest Court at Lisbon when he pleaded guilty to a charge of parking on the paved portion of a road.

He and four other Wellsville men were cited Dec. 1 by Fire Chief Robert W. Lewis of Wellsville, who said their parked cars prevented free passage of fire equipment early Nov. 29 on the way to a fire on the Pleasant Valley Rd.

Judge J. L. MacDonald gave Lewis permission to withdraw the charge against F. E. Jackson of Box 73. The chief said he subsequently learned that Jackson was parked in front of his home.

William Cataldo of 1702 Nevada St. and Wilbert Ewing Jr. of 1111 Mick Rd. pleaded not guilty and posted $10 bonds for appearance when their cases are assigned for trial.

The fifth defendant, Willy Thomkins of 1730 Chester Ave., was granted a continuance until Dec. 27.

Judge MacDonald fined five drivers yesterday. Pleading guilty were Arthur R. Ritchie of Kensington, failure to yield the right of way, $15 and costs; George L. Brown of Lisbon R.D. 1, and Goyen B. Mullins of Kent, speeding, $10 and costs each, and Homer Clark of Lisbon R. D. 2, and James E. McCune of Wellsville, speeding, $5 and costs each.

John Gray of Peninsula, also charged with speeding, forfeited a $15 appearance bond.

Judgment Reversed In $25,000 Action

The Seventh District Court of Appeals has reversed a Common Pleas Court judgment that went against an East Liverpool woman 18 months ago in a personal injury suit.

Remanded for a new trial was Mrs. Erma J. Holdshue's $25,000 action against Ramon Whinery of Lisbon R. D. 4, who operates Whinery's Landing at Guilford Lake.

The jury trial began May 5, 1965, and ended soon after the plaintiff's opening statement when Judge Joel H. Sharp sustained the defendant's motion for a directed verdict.

Mrs. Holdshoe's petition claimed Whinery was negligent in not providing a parking area at his picnic grounds. She said she was picnicking there July 15, 1962, and a parked car, accidentally knocked out of gear by a child, ran down the hillside and struck her.

Potters Kick Off Season On 94-69 Rout Of Westinghouse

The Review Sports

SATURDAY, DEC. 10, 1966 PAGE 11

Smith's 32 Paces Opening Victory; Locals Shoot At 61% Average

By BOB DUFFY
Review Sports Editor

Hitting a torrid 61 per cent, the East Liverpool Potters made the debut of Coach Clinton McConnell a successful one in rolling to a 94-69 victory over Pittsburgh Westinghouse before an overflow crowd of 1,420 Friday night at Memorial Auditorium.

The high-scoring Potters will go after their second victory of the weekend tonight in a Big 8 Conference battle at Alliance.

THE AVIATORS, with a 2-0 record before last night, dropped a 59-46 decision to a strong Cuyahoga Falls team on the winners' court. Ed Osley sparked Alliance with 20 points.

Tonight's game will get under way about 8:30 after a reserve contest at 7. Games at Alliance are played at Stanton Junior High School.

The 94 points scored Friday night represent one of the largest totals ever rolled up by an East Liverpool team in an opening game.

WHILE most coaches would be satisfied with 94 points and a 61 per cent average, McConnell was far from pleased with his team's defensive performance.

"If a team scores 69 points on you, in most cases you'll lose, McConnell said. "They got too many cheap buckets on us."

Also disturbing were the numerous turnovers by the Blue and White, which caused McConnell to point out, "If we make 10 mistakes against Alliance tomorrow night, we'll get beat by 20 points."

"Our good shooting percentage saved us, but we are green on defense," he added.

THE SHOOTING was good, but the Potters rough spots appeared which usually turn up in opening games. The second period was probably the worst eight minutes of the contest for East Liverpool, which showed more turnovers during that period than any other quarter and only scored 14 points.

As expected, Vern Smith, East Liverpool's 6-1 standout, led the scoring parade, hitting on good close-in shots. Smith wound up with scoring honors by collecting 32 as he pushed in 13 field goals in 21 attempts and added six fouls.

—:—

HE FINISHED one point ahead of Westinghouse star Ed Kemp, a 6-7 pivot man, who dropped in 31 for the Bulldogs.

Smith tallied 11 points in the first period. His other good quarter was the third when he also hit for 11.

As a team the Potters shot 61 per cent, making 43 of 71 field goal attempts.

Behind Smith in the scoring was Bruce Christian, a 6-4 junior, who dropped in 18 and worked well under the boards. Christian made 9 of 16 shots.

McCONNELL cleared the bench, using all 15 players who were dressed for the contest and 12 broke into the scoring column. Mike McVay, Bill Carter and Rex Campbell each contributed eight points to the total.

McConnell opened with a starting lineup of Vern Smith, Christian, Mitchell Jones, Earl Diddle and McVay, but in the first minute of play Carter moved into the lineup for Jones. Apparently Jones was used to gain the tipoff.

Through most of the first half, the new Potter mentor used eight different players and employed an all-court press which proved effective at times.

The Potters, led by Smith's 11 points, gained a 27-18 first-quarter lead. Westinghouse narrowed the margin to six points in the second period, but East Liverpool took a 41-31 lead to the dressing room at halftime.

The Potters supplied the knockout punch with a torrid third period, scoring 33 points in eight minutes, and moved into complete control, 74-46, after three quarters.

SMITH poured in 11 and Christian eight during the Potters' best period of the contest.

Westinghouse was led by the long and short. Kemp, at 6-7, tallied on 14 of 22 attempts and added three of 10 fouls for 31, while Day, who stands about 5-7, dropped in 22 points. The Bulldogs shot 47 per cent on 33 of 74.

Strangely enough, Westinghouse scored only three points from the foul line, with Kemp getting those. East Liverpool made six of 14 attempts from the charity stripe, all by Smith.

The loss was the second in three starts for Westinghouse, which dropped its opener to New Castle, but bounced back last Tuesday to defeat Steubenville Central.

EL Reserves Notch 73-50 Opening Win

Sophomore Bill Montgomery poured in 24 points as East Liverpool's reserve forces, under new jayvee coach Frank Melchiorre, rolled to a 73-50 victory over Pittsburgh Westinghouse Friday night at Memorial Auditorium.

The young Potters jumped to a 26-9 first quarter lead and never looked back posting a 42-25 halftime margin and leading by 56-36 after three periods.

Tom Chambers added 12 points to the Potter total while Jerry Christian chipped in with 10.

Wellsville Nipped On Late Overtime Goal

Blair's Shot At Midcourt Saves Lisbon

Lisbon's floor star Don Blair fired a field goal from midcourt as the buzzer sounded giving the Blue Devils a 66-64 overtime victory which came at the expense of the Wellsville Tigers Friday night at Beacom Memorial gym.

No time was left in the overtime session as Blair's one handed push shot launched from the mid court line whistled through the net.

THE TWO County rivals battled to a 62-62 tie at the end of the regulation time and it was Blair who performed the heroics to put the game into overtime.

Wellsville led 62-60 with eight seconds to go when Blair was fouled and made both shots to provide the deadlock.

The game winning shot ended a big night for the 6-2 Lisbon star as Blair wound up with 33 points to take scoring honors.

THE BATTLE proved close throughout and became tied at 58-58 with 1:55 to go in the game. Paul Hood hit two quick goals for Wellsville to put the Tigers on top 62-58 but Nold's field goal and Blair's foul shots tied the contest.

Sophomore Only Scores 19

Duke Holds Alcindor But Not UCLA In 88-54 Loss

By TED MEIER

Wow! UCLA 88, Duke 54. And Lew Alcindor, UCLA's fabulous 7-foot-1in sophomore, got only 19 points.

That tells the story of the big game in college basketball Friday night, which pitted the Bruins, top-ranked in The Associated Press poll, against the seventh-ranked Blue Devils.

In his first varsity game last Saturday Alcindor popped in 56 points against Southern California. This time he didn't take a shot for the first 7½ minutes preferring to pass off because of Duke's collapsing defense against him.

Duke took an early 9-8 lead but fell behind 40-27 at halftime. In the second half UCLA exploded to turn the game before 12,172 at Pauley Pavilion in Los Angeles into a rout.

"Alcindor is so tough he is capable of getting as many as 80 points," said Vic Bubas, the Duke coach. The former New York City high school star finished with six field goals and seven of 11 free throws.

Mike Warren's 26 points was high for the Bruins. Bob Verga topped the Blue Devils with 17.

Duke gets another chance at UCLA and Alcindor tonight, and Bubas hopes his boys will hit a hot shooting streak. The Blue Devils made only 29 per cent of their field goal attempts compared to UCLA's 47 per cent.

North Carolina's Tar Heels, eighth-ranked, rolled over Tulane 92-69 behind Larry Miller's 25 points at Chapel Hill, N.C. Ninth-ranked Brigham Young, the only other team in the Top Ten to play, crushed Denver at Provo, Utah, 87-64 behind Gary Hill's 23 points.

Kansas State whipped Baylor 77-70 and Kansas drubbed Florida State 62-48 in the Sunflower doubleheader at Manhattan, Kan. Marquette overpowered NYU 79-63 and Navy whipped Manhattan 73-68 in a twinbill at New York's Madison Square Garden. Indiana State beat Duquesne 90-84 and Columbia downed Pitt 69-57 in the first round of the Steel Bowl at Pittsburgh.

In other major games, all home court victories, Bradley defeated Southern California 102-97, Syracuse whipped Army 86-63, Princeton routed Colgate 110-72.

Beaver Matmen Drop 1st Match At Carrollton

Beaver Local dropped its first wrestling match of the season, by a 23-17 margin at Carrollton Thursday night.

Beaver Local won five of the 11 matches but Carrollton recorded three pins to make the difference.

Gaining victories for the Beavers were Bruce Evans who pinned his opponent in 2:25 of the 112 pound class. Decisions were picked up by Jack Havice (103), Bob Rohr (120), Chuck Hoppel (154) and Clyde Campbell (165).

Potters Kick Off Season On 94-69 Rout Of Westinghouse

Smith's 32 Paces Opening Victory; Locals Shoot At 61% Average

Hitting a torrid 61 per cent, the East Liverpool Potters made the debut of Coach Clinton McConnell a successful one in rolling to a 94-69 victory over Pittsburgh Westinghouse before an overflow crowd of 1,420 Friday night at Memorial Auditorium.

The high-scoring Potters will go after their second victory of the weekend tonight in a Big 8 Conference battle at Alliance.

THE AVIATORS, with a 2-0 record before last night, dropped a 59-46 decision to a strong Cuyahoga Falls team on the winners' court. Ed Osley sparked Alliance with 20 points.

Tonight's game will get under way about 8:30 after a reserve contest at 7. Games at Alliance are played at Stanton Junior High School.

WHILE most coaches would be satisfied with 94 points and a 61 per cent average, McConnell was far from pleased with his team's defensive performance.

"If a team scores 69 points on you, in most cases you'll lose, McConnell said. "They got too many cheap buckets on us."

Also disturbing were the numerous turnovers by the Blue and White, which caused McConnell to point out, "If we make 10 mistakes against Alliance tomorrow night, we'll get beat by 20 points."

"Our good shooting percentage saved us, but we are green on defense," he added.

THE SHOOTING was good, but the Potters rough spots appeared which usually turn up in opening games. The second period was probably the worst eight minutes of the contest for East Liverpool, which showed more turnovers during that period than any other quarter and only scored 14 points.

As expected, Vern Smith, East Liverpool's 6-1 standout, led the scoring parade, hitting on good close-in shots. Smith wound up with scoring honors by collecting 32 as he pushed in 13 field goals in 21 attempts and added six fouls.

—:—

HE FINISHED one point ahead of Westinghouse star Ed Kemp, a 6-7 pivot man, who dropped in 31 for the Bulldogs.

Smith tallied 11 points in the first period. His other good quarter was the third when he also hit for 11.

As a team the Potters shot 61 per cent, making 43 of 71 field goal attempts.

Behind Smith in the scoring was Bruce Christian, a 6-4 junior, who dropped in 18 and worked well under the boards. Christian made 9 of 16 shots.

McCONNELL cleared the bench, using all 15 players who were dressed for the contest and 12 broke into the scoring column. Mike McVay, Bill Carter and Rex Campbell each contributed eight points to the total.

McConnell opened with a starting lineup of Vern Smith, Christian, Mitchell Jones, Earl Diddle and McVay, but in the first minute of play Carter moved into the lineup for Jones. Apparently Jones was used to gain the tipoff.

Through most of the first half, the new Potter mentor used eight different players and employed an all-court press which proved effective at times.

The Potters, led by Smith's 11 points, gained a 27-18 first-quarter lead. Westinghouse narrowed the margin to six points in the second period, but East Liverpool took a 41-31 lead to the dressing room at halftime.

The Potters supplied the knockout punch with a torrid third period, scoring 33 points in eight minutes, and moved into complete control, 74-46, after three quarters.

Westinghouse was led by the long and short. Kemp, at 6-7, tallied on 14 of 22 attempts and added three of 10 fouls for 31, while Day, who stands about 5-7, dropped in 22 points. The Bulldogs shot 47 per cent on 33 of 74.

Strangely enough, Westinghouse scored only three points from the foul line, with Kemp getting those. East Liverpool made six of 14 attempts from the charity stripe, all by Smith.

The loss was the second in three starts for Westinghouse, which dropped its opener to New Castle, but bounced back last Tuesday to defeat Steubenville Central.

Sophomore Bill Montgomery poured in 24 points as East Liverpool's reserve forces, under new jayvee coach Frank Melchiorre, rolled to a 73-50 victory over Pittsburgh Westinghouse Friday night at Memorial Auditorium.

The young Potters jumped to a 26-9 first quarter lead and never looked back posting a 42-25 halftime margin and leading by 56-36 after three periods.

Wellsville Nipped On Late Overtime Goal

Blair's Shot At Midcourt Saves Lisbon

Lisbon's floor star Don Blair fired a field goal from midcourt as the buzzer sounded giving the Blue Devils a 66-64 overtime victory which came at the expense of the Wellsville Tigers Friday night at Beacom Memorial gym.

No time was left in the overtime session as Blair's one handed push shot launched from the mid court line whistled through the net.

THE TWO County rivals battled to a 62-62 tie at the end of the regulation time and it was Blair who performed the heroics to put the game into overtime.

Wellsville led 62-60 with eight seconds to go when Blair was fouled and made both shots to provide the deadlock.

The game winning shot ended a big night for the 6-2 Lisbon star as Blair wound up with 33 points to take scoring honors.

THE BATTLE proved close throughout and became tied at 58-58 with 1:55 to go in the game. Paul Hood hit two quick goals for Wellsville to put the Tigers on top 62-58 but Nold's field goal and Blair's foul shots tied the contest.

That tells the story of the big game in college basketball Friday night, which pitted the Bruins, top-ranked in The Associated Press poll, against the seventh-ranked Blue Devils.

In his first varsity game last Saturday Alcindor popped in 56 points against Southern California. This time he didn't take a shot for the first 7½ minutes preferring to pass off because of Duke's collapsing defense against him.

Duke took an early 9-8 lead but fell behind 40-27 at halftime. In the second half UCLA exploded to turn the game before 12,172 at Pauley Pavilion in Los Angeles into a rout.

"Alcindor is so tough he is capable of getting as many as 80 points," said Vic Bubas, the Duke coach. The former New York City high school star finished with six field goals and seven of 11 free throws.

Mike Warren's 26 points was high for the Bruins. Bob Verga topped the Blue Devils with 17.

Duke gets another chance at UCLA and Alcindor tonight, and Bubas hopes his boys will hit a hot shooting streak. The Blue Devils made only 29 per cent of their field goal attempts compared to UCLA's 47 per cent.

North Carolina's Tar Heels, eighth-ranked, rolled over Tulane 92-69 behind Larry Miller's 25 points at Chapel Hill, N.C. Ninth-ranked Brigham Young, the only other team in the Top Ten to play, crushed Denver at Provo, Utah, 87-64 behind Gary Hill's 23 points.

Kansas State whipped Baylor 77-70 and Kansas drubbed Florida State 62-48 in the Sunflower doubleheader at Manhattan, Kan. Marquette overpowered NYU 79-63 and Navy whipped Manhattan 73-68 in a twinbill at New York's Madison Square Garden. Indiana State beat Duquesne 90-84 and Columbia downed Pitt 69-57 in the first round of the Steel Bowl at Pittsburgh.

In other major games, all home court victories, Bradley defeated Southern California 102-97, Syracuse whipped Army 86-63, Princeton routed Colgate 110-72.

Midland Snaps 23-Game Streak Of Bishop McCort, 57-49

Leopards Notch Fifth Straight

JOHNSTOWN — Midland High invaded Johnstown Friday night and ended a 23-game winning streak of Bishop McCort by a 57-49 verdict, while posting its fifth straight victory.

McCort, last year's Class A state Catholic champions, had won its last 23 games, 21 from the 1965-66 campaign and 2 so far this year before Midland snapped the string.

The Leopards had to hustle in the second half to preserve their unbeaten record. After leading 13-8 at the end of the first period and 30-20 at halftime, Midland found the Johnstown five staging a rally which cut the lead to three points, 38-35 by the end of the third period.

Johnstown came within one point of the Leopards but Rich Mahurt and Dave Vanlier turned in a pair of three point plays to keep Midland safely in front.

The Leopards, with an eye to defense, held Johnstown's McDevitt, scoreless. He had been averaging 17 points per game until last night's shutout. Vanlier was assigned to him most of the contest.

Midland staved off any further bid by McCort holding a snug lead through the final eight minutes.

Mahurt pumped in 19 points on 7 of 14 attempts for his best effort so far this season to pace Coach Hank Kuzma's squad while junior John Tillman proved a surprise with a 14-point effort. Vanlier added 11 to finish in the double figures.

Rudy Munko at 6-4 the only returning letterman for McCort took game scoring honors with 22 points.

Midland's shooting mark was 21 of 54 for 38 per cent while McCort fired a cold 27 per cent on 16 of 53.

The Leopards made a clean sweep Friday night with the Midland reserves scoring a 48-26 victory in the preliminary battle.

Defensive Gems By Wilt Highlight Philadelphia Win

By The Associated Press

For years teams in the National Basketball Association have been trying to set up a defense to stop the offensive thrusts of Philadelphia's Wilt Chamberlain. Now, they might have to set up a defense to combat Wilt's outstanding defensive work.

The 7-foot-1 center blocked what appeared to be two sure baskets in the closing 30 seconds in Philadelphia Friday night and preserved the 76ers 112-107 victory over the New York Knickerbockers.

The victory was the 10th in succession for the Warriors, who maintained their 4½ game Eastern Division lead over Boston. The Celtics crushed Cincinnati 117-99 and San Francisco edged Los Angeles 119-118 in the other games.

Chet Walker, who dropped in Philadelphia's last basket with two seconds left, shared scoring honors for the winners with Hal Greer. Each had 23 points. Walt Bellamy of New York was high for the game with 26.

The 76ers have won 18 of their last 19 games and 25 of 27 for the campaign for a .926 average.

The Celtics outscored the Royals 20-6 during a five minute stretch in the third quarter at Cincinnati. The setback was the Royals' fifth in a row. Sam Jones led Boston with 31 points while Oscar Robertson, sidelined for the previous two games with a back injury, topped Cincinnati with 22.

Fred Hetzel's basket at the final buzzer gave the San Francisco Warriors a 119-118 victory over the Lakers at Los Angeles. The winners were paced by Rick Barry's 49 points. Jerry West led the Lakers with 39.

Bill Hartack Will Ride At Waterford Thursday

Famous Jockey Bill Hartack, four - time winner of the Kentucky Derby and one of the seven top riders of all-time, will be at Waterford Park Thursday to ride at least three races and to be honored at the track where he rode his first winner 14 years ago.

James F. Edwards, owner of Waterford, announced that Hartack is coming here from his home in Miami for "Hartack Day." Race fans will be admitted to the grandstand free and the clubhouse admission will be $1.

There will be a special presentation ceremony in the winner's circle for Hartack. In addition, Edwards said a portrait of the great rider will be hung at Waterford along with a record of his fabulous riding feats on tracks through the country.

It was at Waterford that Hartack started his spectacular riding career that won him election to the Jockey Hall of Fame in 1963. The son of a Pennsylvania coal miner, he rode his first winner at Waterford on Oct. 14, 1952 on a horse named Nickleby.

Hartack won only 36 races that first year but he captured the attention of the turf world in 1953 when he rode a record-breaking 85 winners at Waterford in a 40-day meet. Then he went to Randall Park, Cleveland, where he rode 86 winners in a 44-day meet. He won 350 races that year but that was just a mild beginning on his climb to riding fame and fortune.

Hartack moved to the major race tracks where he won as many as six races in one day. He was the national Jockey leader three years in a row from 1955 through 1957. In 1955 he won 417 races, in 1956 he won 347 races and in 1957 he won with 341 mounts. His winning average was 25 per cent —one of the highest ever. And again in 1960 he became the leading American jockey with 307 victories.

Jurgensen Seen Threat To Dallas

The Cowboys hold a one-game lead over St. Louis with two games remaining, and one of them is Sunday against Jurgensen and the Washington Redskins in the Cotton Bowl.

A victory for Dallas would give the Cowboys at least a share of the crown and coupled with a St. Louis loss at Atlanta, it would clinch it.

The only other team in contention, defending champion Cleveland, takes its slim hopes to Philadelphia, while Chicago travels to San Francisco. Detroit ends its season at home against Minnesota and Pittsburgh plays at New York.

Green Bay met Baltimore today with a chance to wrap up its second straight Western Division title. Los Angeles was idle.

In the American League Sunday, Boston takes its championship hopes to Houston, where the Patriots can close in on the title in the Eastern Division.

The Patriots hold a fractional lead over idle Buffalo, with New York to be met next Sunday, while Buffalo closes against Denver. Boston needs two victories to be sure it stays on top.

Kansas City already has the West wrapped up as it takes the league's leading offense and defense to Miami. Completing the all-Sunday schedule, New York goes cross country to San Diego, and Denver invades Oakland.

It was Jurgensen who almost blacked out Dallas' title hopes a month ago. He passed the Redskins into a 30-28 lead only to see Don Meredith drive the Cowboys to a winning field goal by Danny Villanueva with 15 seconds left.

Dallas enters the game on the heels of victories over Cleveland and St. Louis that put it on top.

Boston's rugged defense again will try to stop Trull and the rest of the Oiler youngsters, while Jim Nance attempts to run up enough points for any lapses.

Coatta Selected As Badger Coach

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP) — John Coatta, an ex-Wisconsin quarterback of the Bart Starr school, has been assigned to restore the shine to the Badgers' tarnished football image.

The 36-year-old Wisconsin defensive coach was named to succeed his former boss, Milt Bruhn, who resigned after a third straight losing season.

The elevation of Coatta to the $19,500-a-year job had been expected. The university's Athletic Board unanimously recommended the promotion Tuesday night, but Coatta was not informed officially until after the Board of Regents ratified the decision Friday.

Coatta, a former assistant at Florida State, was given a three-year contract by the regents, who named Bruhn assistant athletic director at Wisconsin.

Midland Snaps 23-Game Streak Of Bishop McCort, 57-49

Leopards Notch Fifth Straight

JOHNSTOWN — Midland High invaded Johnstown Friday night and ended a 23-game winning streak of Bishop McCort by a 57-49 verdict, while posting its fifth straight victory.

McCort, last year's Class A state Catholic champions, had won its last 23 games, 21 from the 1965-66 campaign and 2 so far this year before Midland snapped the string.

The Leopards had to hustle in the second half to preserve their unbeaten record. After leading 13-8 at the end of the first period and 30-20 at halftime, Midland found the Johnstown five staging a rally which cut the lead to three points, 38-35 by the end of the third period.

Johnstown came within one point of the Leopards but Rich Mahurt and Dave Vanlier turned in a pair of three point plays to keep Midland safely in front.

The Leopards, with an eye to defense, held Johnstown's McDevitt, scoreless. He had been averaging 17 points per game until last night's shutout. Vanlier was assigned to him most of the contest.

Midland staved off any further bid by McCort holding a snug lead through the final eight minutes.

Mahurt pumped in 19 points on 7 of 14 attempts for his best effort so far this season to pace Coach Hank Kuzma's squad while junior John Tillman proved a surprise with a 14-point effort. Vanlier added 11 to finish in the double figures.

Rudy Munko at 6-4 the only returning letterman for McCort took game scoring honors with 22 points.

Midland's shooting mark was 21 of 54 for 38 per cent while McCort fired a cold 27 per cent on 16 of 53.

The Leopards made a clean sweep Friday night with the Midland reserves scoring a 48-26 victory in the preliminary battle.

For years teams in the National Basketball Association have been trying to set up a defense to stop the offensive thrusts of Philadelphia's Wilt Chamberlain. Now, they might have to set up a defense to combat Wilt's outstanding defensive work.

The 7-foot-1 center blocked what appeared to be two sure baskets in the closing 30 seconds in Philadelphia Friday night and preserved the 76ers 112-107 victory over the New York Knickerbockers.

The victory was the 10th in succession for the Warriors, who maintained their 4½ game Eastern Division lead over Boston. The Celtics crushed Cincinnati 117-99 and San Francisco edged Los Angeles 119-118 in the other games.

Chet Walker, who dropped in Philadelphia's last basket with two seconds left, shared scoring honors for the winners with Hal Greer. Each had 23 points. Walt Bellamy of New York was high for the game with 26.

The 76ers have won 18 of their last 19 games and 25 of 27 for the campaign for a .926 average.

The Celtics outscored the Royals 20-6 during a five minute stretch in the third quarter at Cincinnati. The setback was the Royals' fifth in a row. Sam Jones led Boston with 31 points while Oscar Robertson, sidelined for the previous two games with a back injury, topped Cincinnati with 22.

Fred Hetzel's basket at the final buzzer gave the San Francisco Warriors a 119-118 victory over the Lakers at Los Angeles. The winners were paced by Rick Barry's 49 points. Jerry West led the Lakers with 39.

Jurgensen Seen Threat To Dallas

The Cowboys hold a one-game lead over St. Louis with two games remaining, and one of them is Sunday against Jurgensen and the Washington Redskins in the Cotton Bowl.

A victory for Dallas would give the Cowboys at least a share of the crown and coupled with a St. Louis loss at Atlanta, it would clinch it.

The only other team in contention, defending champion Cleveland, takes its slim hopes to Philadelphia, while Chicago travels to San Francisco. Detroit ends its season at home against Minnesota and Pittsburgh plays at New York.

Green Bay met Baltimore today with a chance to wrap up its second straight Western Division title. Los Angeles was idle.

In the American League Sunday, Boston takes its championship hopes to Houston, where the Patriots can close in on the title in the Eastern Division.

The Patriots hold a fractional lead over idle Buffalo, with New York to be met next Sunday, while Buffalo closes against Denver. Boston needs two victories to be sure it stays on top.

Kansas City already has the West wrapped up as it takes the league's leading offense and defense to Miami. Completing the all-Sunday schedule, New York goes cross country to San Diego, and Denver invades Oakland.

It was Jurgensen who almost blacked out Dallas' title hopes a month ago. He passed the Redskins into a 30-28 lead only to see Don Meredith drive the Cowboys to a winning field goal by Danny Villanueva with 15 seconds left.

Dallas enters the game on the heels of victories over Cleveland and St. Louis that put it on top.

Boston's rugged defense again will try to stop Trull and the rest of the Oiler youngsters, while Jim Nance attempts to run up enough points for any lapses.

EAST PALESTINE — West Branch trimmed East Palestine, 52-49 in an overtime battle here Friday night.

The contest was nip and tuck throughout with East Palestine owning a 23-22 halftime lead while maintaining the margin, 34-33, after three periods.

Jim Chain paced West Branch with 14 points while Scott Burns topped the Bulldogs with 11 points.

The win was the second in three starts for West Branch while East Palestine is 1-2.

Bill Hartack Will Ride At Waterford Thursday

Famous Jockey Bill Hartack, four - time winner of the Kentucky Derby and one of the seven top riders of all-time, will be at Waterford Park Thursday to ride at least three races and to be honored at the track where he rode his first winner 14 years ago.

James F. Edwards, owner of Waterford, announced that Hartack is coming here from his home in Miami for "Hartack Day." Race fans will be admitted to the grandstand free and the clubhouse admission will be $1.

There will be a special presentation ceremony in the winner's circle for Hartack. In addition, Edwards said a portrait of the great rider will be hung at Waterford along with a record of his fabulous riding feats on tracks through the country.

It was at Waterford that Hartack started his spectacular riding career that won him election to the Jockey Hall of Fame in 1963. The son of a Pennsylvania coal miner, he rode his first winner at Waterford on Oct. 14, 1952 on a horse named Nickleby.

Hartack won only 36 races that first year but he captured the attention of the turf world in 1953 when he rode a record-breaking 85 winners at Waterford in a 40-day meet. Then he went to Randall Park, Cleveland, where he rode 86 winners in a 44-day meet. He won 350 races that year but that was just a mild beginning on his climb to riding fame and fortune.

Hartack moved to the major race tracks where he won as many as six races in one day. He was the national Jockey leader three years in a row from 1955 through 1957. In 1955 he won 417 races, in 1956 he won 347 races and in 1957 he won with 341 mounts. His winning average was 25 per cent —one of the highest ever. And again in 1960 he became the leading American jockey with 307 victories.

Coatta Selected As Badger Coach

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP) — John Coatta, an ex-Wisconsin quarterback of the Bart Starr school, has been assigned to restore the shine to the Badgers' tarnished football image.

The 36-year-old Wisconsin defensive coach was named to succeed his former boss, Milt Bruhn, who resigned after a third straight losing season.

The elevation of Coatta to the $19,500-a-year job had been expected. The university's Athletic Board unanimously recommended the promotion Tuesday night, but Coatta was not informed officially until after the Board of Regents ratified the decision Friday.

Coatta, a former assistant at Florida State, was given a three-year contract by the regents, who named Bruhn assistant athletic director at Wisconsin.

Color Firm Is Purchased By Local Decal Company

Charles W. Harrison & Co., Inc., of Broadway, a supplier of colors for pottery and one of East Liverpool's oldest firms, has been sold to Commercial Decal, Inc., of St. Clair Ave. Ext.

The firm was operated by Mrs. Dorothy Harrison Horsley, daughter of the founder, Charles W. Harrison.

Robert Bernstorff, manager of Commercial Decal, said the firm will serve as representative for the entire United States for the firm.

The colors have been moved to the new Commercial Decal building. They are used in overglaze, underglaze and ware coloring.

The business will be handled by the specialties division, Bernstorf added.

Harrison Color was started here in 1899. The original offices were in the former First National Bank building on Washington St., since torn down. The firm was moved to the Broadway location in 1909.

Coin Machine Rifled At Station In East End

Only minor loss resulted in the rifling of a coin-operated soft drink vending machine outside an East End service station Wednesday night or Thursday morning, police reported.

Thieves pried open the machine at Hamilton's Cities Service Station at 1148 Pennsylvania Ave. and carried away the money box, officers said. However, the box contained little, if any, cash, officers were told by Bill Hamilton, operator of the station.

The machine is owned by the Coca - Cola Bottling Co. of Youngstown, officers said. The lock on the door was damaged beyond repair, police said.

Approximately half of New York City's residents were born abroad or are first - generation Americans.

Johnson Claimed Facing Defeat If He Stands Still

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson "can look forward to defeat in 1968" unless he changes his domestic and foreign policies, the national director of Americans for Democratic Action said today.

Leon Shull, in a speech prepared for a meeting of the liberal organization's national board, also cited Johnson's unpopularity as one reason for Republican gains in last month's elections.

"The administration should recognize that the 1966 election was a defeat and that if the President had been running he might well have lost," Shull said.

He said if Johnson proceeds with plans "for major substantial cuts or lack of forward motion in the Great Society programs, if he is going to develop his future programs in cooperation with and in consensus with Senator Dirksen and Congressman Ford, he can look forward to defeat in 1968."

Shull referred to Senate GOP Leader Everett M. Dirksen and House Republican Leader Gerald R. Ford.

In reviewing the elections, Shull said:

"Unlike other recent presidents, President Johnson does not seem to have a committed constituency. While it is pertectly true that other presidents had often aroused emotional opposition, nevertheless there was always a hard core of loyal devotees who were for him through thick and thin. This particular element seems to be missing here."

It's In The Box— No Longer In Use

WICHITA, Kan. (AP) — Some time after the city library disposed of a curbside book collection box a library worker called a patron about an overdue book.

"I returned it long ago," the patron said. "I dropped it in the collection box."

Told that the box was no longer in use, the patron replied:

"I know that. The box is at the back of the library and upside down. And that's where I put the book."

That's where a librarian found it.

Curt Flood, St. Louis Cardinal outfielder, handled 396 chances in 159 games last season without an error.

Bliss Stresses Opportunities In Republican Party

MADISON, Wis. (AP) — Republican National Chairman Ray C. Bliss said today that because of erosion within his party it now is the only party with room for new leaders and new ideas.

"There is little room in the Democratic party for new ideas," Bliss said in remarks prepared for the Republican National Committee's "Opportunities Unlimited" seminar at the University of Wisconsin.

"The same leaders prescribe the same remedies for the nation's problems even though they have a long history of failure," he continued. "The party faithful of the opposition are standing in line waiting for their voices to be heard, waiting for jobs at the top which have been occupied by the same people for years."

By contrast, Bliss said the Republican party has been "eroding at the bottom" for years and GOP leaders have "found it more and more difficult to find people who were willing to run for office—any office."

"Because the Republican party is the minority party," he continued, "it has fewer people seeking to advance to positions of leadership. Hence your chances of rising rapidly to a leadership role are not only excellent but certain, if you are qualified."

Color Firm Is Purchased By Local Decal Company

Charles W. Harrison & Co., Inc., of Broadway, a supplier of colors for pottery and one of East Liverpool's oldest firms, has been sold to Commercial Decal, Inc., of St. Clair Ave. Ext.

The firm was operated by Mrs. Dorothy Harrison Horsley, daughter of the founder, Charles W. Harrison.

Robert Bernstorff, manager of Commercial Decal, said the firm will serve as representative for the entire United States for the firm.

The colors have been moved to the new Commercial Decal building. They are used in overglaze, underglaze and ware coloring.

The business will be handled by the specialties division, Bernstorf added.

Harrison Color was started here in 1899. The original offices were in the former First National Bank building on Washington St., since torn down. The firm was moved to the Broadway location in 1909.

Coin Machine Rifled At Station In East End

Only minor loss resulted in the rifling of a coin-operated soft drink vending machine outside an East End service station Wednesday night or Thursday morning, police reported.

Thieves pried open the machine at Hamilton's Cities Service Station at 1148 Pennsylvania Ave. and carried away the money box, officers said. However, the box contained little, if any, cash, officers were told by Bill Hamilton, operator of the station.

The machine is owned by the Coca - Cola Bottling Co. of Youngstown, officers said. The lock on the door was damaged beyond repair, police said.

Approximately half of New York City's residents were born abroad or are first - generation Americans.

Johnson Claimed Facing Defeat If He Stands Still

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson "can look forward to defeat in 1968" unless he changes his domestic and foreign policies, the national director of Americans for Democratic Action said today.

Leon Shull, in a speech prepared for a meeting of the liberal organization's national board, also cited Johnson's unpopularity as one reason for Republican gains in last month's elections.

"The administration should recognize that the 1966 election was a defeat and that if the President had been running he might well have lost," Shull said.

He said if Johnson proceeds with plans "for major substantial cuts or lack of forward motion in the Great Society programs, if he is going to develop his future programs in cooperation with and in consensus with Senator Dirksen and Congressman Ford, he can look forward to defeat in 1968."

Shull referred to Senate GOP Leader Everett M. Dirksen and House Republican Leader Gerald R. Ford.

In reviewing the elections, Shull said:

"Unlike other recent presidents, President Johnson does not seem to have a committed constituency. While it is perfectly true that other presidents had often aroused emotional opposition, nevertheless there was always a hard core of loyal devotees who were for him through thick and thin. This particular element seems to be missing here."

It's In The Box— No Longer In Use

WICHITA, Kan. (AP) — Some time after the city library disposed of a curbside book collection box a library worker called a patron about an overdue book.

"I returned it long ago," the patron said. "I dropped it in the collection box."

Told that the box was no longer in use, the patron replied:

"I know that. The box is at the back of the library and upside down. And that's where I put the book."

That's where a librarian found it.

Curt Flood, St. Louis Cardinal outfielder, handled 396 chances in 159 games last season without an error.

Bliss Stresses Opportunities In Republican Party

MADISON, Wis. (AP) — Republican National Chairman Ray C. Bliss said today that because of erosion within his party it now is the only party with room for new leaders and new ideas.

"There is little room in the Democratic party for new ideas," Bliss said in remarks prepared for the Republican National Committee's "Opportunities Unlimited" seminar at the University of Wisconsin.

"The same leaders prescribe the same remedies for the nation's problems even though they have a long history of failure," he continued. "The party faithful of the opposition are standing in line waiting for their voices to be heard, waiting for jobs at the top which have been occupied by the same people for years."

By contrast, Bliss said the Republican party has been "eroding at the bottom" for years and GOP leaders have "found it more and more difficult to find people who were willing to run for office—any office."

"Because the Republican party is the minority party," he continued, "it has fewer people seeking to advance to positions of leadership. Hence your chances of rising rapidly to a leadership role are not only excellent but certain, if you are qualified."

$12,000 PER YEAR

Who ever thought that this much money could be owned by a properly trained Restaurant Manager in this area? Well, we have quite a few in this category, who, just several years ago were salesmen, dairy stand operators, in hospital food service, or simply other restaurant managers who became stymied in their previous job.

Morgan's Restaurants in Butler, Pa. are currently undergoing another expansion program and consequently, we need some more $12,000 a year men. If you've ever entertained the thought of getting into the mammoth food business as it is today, now is the time to send us a letter telling us about yourself and when you'd be available for an interview. You may be awfully glad you did.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

2 IN MEMORIAM

FLORENCE HULL. Mother dear, you were put to rest 5 years ago yesterday, Dec. 9.
To suffer no more, You always chase the clouds away, I could not forget you now. Gone into the light that shines so fair, Gone from this earth of sorrow and care. Resting those hands that did their best, Gone, dear mother. Gone to rest. What is home without my mother What are the joys I meet When your lovely smile no longer greets the coming of my feet Dearest Mother, how I miss you, Since from earth you passed away, And my heart is aching sorely as I think of you today.
Your daughters, sons, and Husband

In memory of Mary McDevitt Allison who died December 9th, eleven years ago.
Her memory is our keepsake
With which we will never part.
God has her in his keeping
We have her in our heart.
Sadly missed by Mother, Brother, Sister and Loved Ones

$12,000 PER YEAR

Who ever thought that this much money could be owned by a properly trained Restaurant Manager in this area? Well, we have quite a few in this category, who, just several years ago were salesmen, dairy stand operators, in hospital food service, or simply other restaurant managers who became stymied in their previous job.

Morgan's Restaurants in Butler, Pa. are currently undergoing another expansion program and consequently, we need some more $12,000 a year men. If you've ever entertained the thought of getting into the mammoth food business as it is today, now is the time to send us a letter telling us about yourself and when you'd be available for an interview. You may be awfully glad you did.

Junior Editors Quiz on POPCORN

QUESTION: What makes popcorn pop?

ANSWER: In England, the word corn is used for wheat and in Scotland and Ireland it's used for oats. In 1492, Columbus' explorers found corn growing in Cuba and learned it was called "maize." Because of the small kernals, however, this plant, new to Europeans, became known as "corn." There are several kinds of corn, such as dent, flint, sweet and popcorn. This last is a development of flint corn, which is often grown in the northern U.S. and Canada. Popcorn has small ears and hard, pointed kernals. When dried and then suddenly heated, these explode or pop, turning into the much larger, white and delicious morsels we call popcorn. Scientists are not entirely certain as to how the kernels pop, but they think moisture inside is turned into steam, which then suddenly explodes the kernels' hard shells. Popcorn plants are grown closer together than other corn plants and the ears are allowed to dry out on the plant. Much popcorn comes from Illinois, Indiana, Ohio and Iowa.

FOR YOU TO DO: Get your mother to cooperate with you in trying this popcorn recipe. Mix ½ cup each of molasses and corn syrup with ½ tablespoon of vinegar. Cook until a small amount will form ball in cold water. Pour over popcorn and mould into balls with buttered fingers.

Man Questioned In Stranglings

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — The sixth strangling in Cincinnati turned the spotlight today on the unsolved Aug. 14 slaying of a 31-year-old woman who was stabbed in the throat after an attempt was made to strangle her.

Police continued to question a 29-year-old man in connection with both cases, and also the five previous stranglings.

A shy, religious spinster, Lulu Kerrick, 81, became the sixth victim of a killer who has terrorized Cincinnati since Dec. 2, 1965. Her body was found Friday in an elevator of her apartment building.

"There's a definite tie-in of the Kerrick slaying with other strangulations in the city," said Jacob Schott, chief of detectives.

The stranglings have resulted in increased sales of guns and other weapons, such as tear gas guns, in the Cincinnati area.

Police arrested a laborer and former part time taxi driver, shortly after Miss Kerrick's body was found. They said he had been seen following another woman into Miss Kerrick's apartment building early Friday. That woman filed an assault charge against him.

Late Friday night, Schott said six persons picked the man out of a lineup in connection with the slaying of Barbara Bowman, 31, last Aug. 14. But the five men and a woman said they were not sure enough of the identification to testify in court.

Miss Kerrick, who lived alone a few blocks from police headquarters, was attacked after returning home from 7 a.m. Mass at St. Peter-in-Chaims Cathedral near her home.

She had not been raped as were the other five strangling victims, all more than 50 years old. She was strangled with a stocking yanked from her leg.

The last previous killing was Oct. 20 when the body of Rose Winstel, 81, a spinster, was found in her apartment. She lived alone and strangled with an electric cord.

Driver Fined At Wellsville

A Weirton truck driver was fined $25 and costs Friday by Wellsville Mayor William Daugherty as a result of a collision between his truck and a car at Clark Ave. and 20th St.

Stacey L. Griffith, 25, was cited for failure to yield the right of way early yesterday after his semi - trailer rig hit a 1964 sedan driven by Lois Burke, 21, of 1791 Clark Ave.

Wellsville police said both vehicles were headed south on Clark Ave. and the woman was attempting to make a left turn when her car was hit by the truck.

The impact caused the auto to go out of control and into a vacant lot, knocking down several mail boxes. The woman reported she received a bruised head, officers said.

There was moderate damage to both vehicles, police added.

Sheep Producers Get Reminder On Marketing Year

LISBON — J. Glenn Bates, chairman of the Columbiana County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee today reminded sheep producers the 1966 marketing year for the wool and mohair program will end Dec. 31.

He said payments for the current marketing year likely will begin next April and will be for marketings completed before the deadline. Marketings completed after Dec. 31 will not be eligible for payments until early in 1968.

Bates urges producers to make sure that all details for 1966 sales are completed by the end of the year. He said this includes passing title to the buyer, delivering the wool or mohair to the buyer either physically or through documents (such as warehouse receipts or bills of lading), transferring control to the buyer, and having available all the information needed to determine the buyer's total purchase price.

Applications for 1966 marketing year payments under the National Wool Act may be filed with the county ASC office, 41 N. Park St., Lisbon, at any time.

Incentive payments under the wool program are based on the average national price for marketings during the whole year. This can be determined more exactly if reports on marketings are complete, Bates said.

He recommends that all 1966 applications be filed before Jan. 31.

McConnell Talks At Lions Session

Clinton McConnell, high school basketball coach, outlined the Potters' prospects for the new season in a speech to the Lions Club Friday noon at the Travelers Hotel.

Although the squad faces a "tough schedule," it is "aggressive and confident," the coach declared. He named most of the Potters' prospective opponents and discussed their strong and weak points.

McConnell declared that the players are hard working and dedicated "so if we lose it will be the fault of the coach, not the players." Eighty-four boys reported for basketball this fall and the squad now has been cut to 30, he said. Further cuts are planned as the season progresses.

The coach was introduced by Austen Moore, program chairman. Ed Shingler, president, presided.

J. Warren Bettis, city solicitor, presented Davis with a certificate of appreciation for his service on behalf of the village officials.

Tribute was also given to Mr. and Mrs. Davis for their participation in the community.

80 Attend Party Of CP Affiliate

Eighty attended the annual Christmas party of the Columbiana County Affiliate of the United Cerebral Palsy Association Friday night in the clinic rooms at Mary Patterson Memorial.

Santa Claus made his appearance and distributed toys to the boys and girls. The room was decorated in a Yuletide theme, highlighted with a decorated tree. Members of the Key Club were in charge of decorations, including the tree.

Refreshments and cookies were served. Guests included Richard Brian, president; Lawrence Zollinger, past president; Mrs. M. Rudolph Miller, teacher of the nursery class at the clinic, and Miss Kathleen Potter, secretary of the association.

The arrangement committee was comprised of Mrs. John B. McDonald, Mrs. William White, Mrs. Robert Wagner, Mrs. Nathan Weinbren, Eugene Hall and Brian.
